Council Decided On Sypher Ouster, Hub Mayor Says

City Engineer Says Council Doesn't Know Real Story

San Anselmo City Council action, not a feud in the city official family, is responsible for the impending departure of Public Works Director Richard A. Sypher, councilmen said.

Mayor William Franchini today disclosed that a Christmas-season closed council session was held to discuss complaints about Sypher's performance. Immediately after the holidays, Sypher was advised to seek another position within 90 days, Franchini said.

Yesterday, Sypher said a classified advertisement for a San Anselmo public works director which appeared Friday in the Independent-Journal was "sort of a way of muscling me out." The council, said Sypher, "does not know what the real story is."

The council knows the story, said Franchini.

Councilmen did not fire Sypher, the mayor said, but advised him to seek other employment. City Administrator Douglas Flautt was authorized to recruit for a successor, Franchini reported.

Sypher continued today with his routine duties. However, he said he did not know how long he would continue reporting to work.

"If I had another job, I'd leave right now," he said.

The engineer confirmed that the council had discussed the problems with him, but stuck to yesterday's declaration that his impending departure is due to "the man who's running the city." He refused to identify the man.

MISSION PEAR ORCHARD TO LIVE ON

Negroes Begin March Despite Ban From Court

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., declaring "I must march," led a massive throng of Negroes and scores of white clergymen from a church today for a highway pilgrimage in defiance of a court ban and a presidential appeal.

The marchers streamed from the Browns Chapel A.M.E. church shortly after 3:15 p.m. (EST), walking in columns of twos.

They were met by a column of state troopers today only one block after the start of the march to Montgomery.

There was a brief moment of tension when the first of the marching column arrived at the troopers' position but the white helmeted officers stepped aside and allowed the demonstration to proceed, at least in its early stages.

There was no way to determine the number in the procession as it left the church. But there were hundreds. More than 2,000 persons, most of them Negroes.

The demonstration came in the face of an order by U.S. Dist. Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr., of Montgomery, banning the 50-mile pilgrimage to the state capital.

President Johnson also had appealed for calmness and respect for law and order. He made clear he wanted the Negroes to obey the court order.

A large force of heavily armed state troopers awaited across the Alabama River at the outskirts of the city to halt the procession. Troopers broke up the first attempted right-to-vote march Sunday by using clubs and tear gas on the Negroes.

Before leading the march from the church, King told the cheering crowd inside that he had no choice but to attempt the pilgrimage.

"I have no alternative," he said. "I ask you to join with me today as we move on. I have made my choice this afternoon. I have got to march . . . the SELMA, Ala. (AP) — The march by Negroes and white clergymen turned back today after state police stopped it.

BEHR BLASTS LAW OFFICERS ON ALABAMA

Chairman Peter H. Behr of the Marin County Board of Supervisors today berated law enforcement officers for "sitting on their hands" while brutality replaces law in Alabama.

"What has happened in Alabama blots the reputation of every single law enforcement officer in the country," Behr declared at the supervisors' meeting. "Yet they are all sitting on their hands."

Behr said he has not heard of a single law enforcement agency condemning the police action in Alabama. "They'd better stand up and be counuted," he declared.

The supervisors' chairman made his comments directly to Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales, who was present, and told him, "You can pass this along to the sheriff."

Two Leave For Selma To Join Demonstration

They are Rev. Don Schilling, Pastor of St. Andrew United Presbyterian Church, Marin City, and Conrad Knudsen, a student in his final year at the seminary in San Anselmo.

A third Marin man, from Terra Linda, also accompanied the men by air with about a dozen Bay Area ministers, Mrs. Schilling said today. She did not know his name.

"The purpose is to demonstrate concern of Christians in all parts of the country for what is going on there and willingness to put their own bodies on the line if necessary," Mrs. Schilling said.

"Don took his desert boots, wash pants and a blanket with the idea he planned to enter today's march. They are not going to sit in a hotel room."

She said his trip is sponsored by the Presbyterian Interacial Council and partly paid out of his own pocket. Conrad, she said, got money through friends and some of his own. Schilling plans to return Sunday night.

Mountain Battle Defeats Viet Reds

COMBINED AP & UPI

KANNACK, South Viet Nam — American - led mountain tribesmen fighting with their women and children at their back inflicted a major defeat on Viet Cong troops yesterday, it was disclosed today.

The Montagnards killed at least 100 of the attacking Communists and drove the remainder from their barbed wire fortress in the mountains 275 miles northeast of Saigon. It was the Reds' biggest setback in months.

The seemingly peaceful valley exploded in the pre dawn darkness yesterday as the Viet Cong made another move in their campaign to cut off the Vietnamese army's Second Corps headquarters in the central highlands.

The first warning of the attack was a barrage of Communist recoilless cannon and mortar fire from modern Soviet, Chinese Communist and other Communist weapons.

In Washington, Secretary of State Dean Rusk pledged continued large-scale economic and military aid to South Viet Nam today, saying "inaction in the face of challenge is the sure path of disaster."

Opening testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on the administration's $3.38-billion foreign aid request for the coming year, Rusk also suggested that U.S. assistance to Indonesia should be ended.

American aid to Indonesia used to run more than $100 million a year, but has dwindled to less than $3 million in technical aid as Washington-Jakarta relations worsened.

Supervisors Order End To Eyesores

Marin County supervisors want eyesores eliminated and beer cans picked up along county highways.

Supervisors William A. Gnoss today called the Fagundes Ranch area an eyesore and a disgrace to Marin.

"There are many other areas too," he said, "some junkyards, some places where cars are lying around."

Supervisor Peter H. Behr cited an unfinished apartment building in Sausalito that is visible to travelers along the Waldo Grade. "It's an eyesore and should either be completed or taken down," he said.

Supervisor Thomas T. Storer said that while driving from Nicasio to Point Reyes Station he noticed beer cans and beer bottles strewn along the roadside.

Supervisors asked County Administrator Alan Bruce to get the county public works department into action on a cleanup. They suggested county jail prisoners, juvenile offenders or troops from the stockade at Hamilton Air Force Base might be put to work on the job.

Bruce said it would take a month to prepare a plan.

Fairfax Council Picks Lawrence For Mayor

Lawrence replaces Cornelis Van Vliet, who resigned Feb. 17, giving business pressures as his reason.

The council appointed Mrs. Frances Lestanguet, deputy city clerk since last April, as city clerk, replacing Mrs. Alice Leonsesio, whose resignation after 24 years service became effective Feb. 28.

Mrs. Lestanguet was also appointed as administrative aide to the city administrator at a salary of $405 a month. This, added to her monthly pay as city clerk gives her a total of $505 a month, a $22 raise over her salary as deputy city clerk.

Councilman Peter R. Arrigoni voted against appointment of Mrs. Lestanguet as administrative aide, but gave no reason for his vote. The administrative aide would work directly under the new city administrator, performing many of the functions formerly handled by the deputy city clerk, said Councilman Robert R. Souza.

Councilmen had earlier decided to wait until the arrival of David J. Sumbardo, who is scheduled to take over as Fairfax's first city administrator March 15, before deciding on clerical needs.

Election Bill Signed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Brown today signed into law a bill giving city and county employees the right to participate in elections directly affecting their wages and working conditions.

Appalachia Bill Signed By President

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Proudly proclaiming an end to what he called pork barrel treatment of America's impoverished areas, President Johnson signed into law today the first major section of his Great Society plan — the $1.1 billion Appalachia bill.

The Chief Executive used more than 80 pens in signing the bill at a White House rose garden ceremony. Attending were more than half of the governors of the 11 Appalachia states sharing in the program, as well as senators and representatives of both parties.

Johnson called the bill "the truest example of creative federalism in our time." He said it marked an end to "partisan cynicism" in dealing with problems of the poor and added:

"The dole is dead, the pork barrel is gone."

Gate Flowers Are Suggested

County Supervisor Peter H. Behr today envisioned a spectacular vista of colorful wildflowers covering the Golden Gate headlands.

Behr asked fellow supervisors to consider seeding of the headlands by helicopter.

He said the seeding was recommended by one of his constituents and he felt it wouldn't be too costly and would create a beautiful scene.

Local Government Workers Grow 25 Pct. In Five Years

Taxpayers in Marin and five other San Francisco-Oakland metropolitan area counties supported 25 per cent more local government employees in 1962 than they did five years earlier, the federal Census Bureau reported today.

County, city, local district and school district paychecks in the six counties went to a total of 101,223 persons when the 1962 census of governments was taken, compared to 75,338 employees in 1957. About half of the public servants were teachers or school-related employees.

Although the payrolls climbed, the number of governmental agencies shrank slightly in the census period, from 414 in 1957 to 398 (including 143 school districts) in 1962.

The figures are reported in "Local Government in Metropolitan Areas," newly published by the Census Bureau.

Wildlife Plan Gains

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A $6.5 million appropriation for improvement of fish, wildlife and recreation facilities in the Merced Irrigation District was passed by the Senate today.

Church To Study Agriculture Labor

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Episcopal church said today it will study California's agricultural labor problem and its potential social and economic effects on workers, farmers, processors and public.

The Rt. Rev. James A. Pike, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of California, named a four-man commission to make immediate field investigations in Salinas, King City and Santa Maria areas.

Bishop Pike ordered the study after a four-day visit to Salinas Valley. He said he "became immediately aware of the grave dimensions of the problem" of recruiting domestic workers to replace Mexican braceros.

City Hall Yule Lights Removed

Christmas tree lights which bordered the outline of the Mill Valley City Hall for about 10 years were taken down last weekend.

"The wiring was so bad," said City Mgr. Bert A. Balmer, "We were afraid it would burn the place up." He said wiring and sockets were thrown away.

Next Christmas? Balmer said this will be decided later.

RIGHTS WORKERS, NAZIS IN DEMONSTRATION

Rights Movement Called Red Plot

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Robert Welch says the civil rights movement is part of a Communist plan to drive a wedge between Americans and to establish a "Negro Soviet Republic in the Southeastern United States."

Welch

The founder of the John Birch Society, here for three fund-raising speeches, told a news conference yesterday:

The plan was devised in 1929 by Communist leaders who said then that "Negroes in the South are to be considered exactly as if they were a colony of suppressed natives."

The plan's object, said Welch, is to "stir up trouble and demand an independent Negro Republic . . . and then advance the Communist cause."

Husband Killed With Baseball Bat

Mrs. Brewer

Mrs. Carolyn Mae Brewer, 28, was booked yesterday on suspicion of murder in the death of Bobbie Gene Brawer, 38.

Mrs. Brewer's son by a previous marriage, Michael P. McMillan, 11, slept through the incident, police said.

Detectives quoted Mrs. Brewer as saying she and her husband argued over Brewer's disciplining the boy. Her husband struck her, then pushed her head into a washbowl of water, she told officers. It was then, she said, she struck him on the head with the bat.

Pleads Guilty In Spying Case

NEW YORK (AP) — Two months ago, soon after his arrest on charges he sold military secrets to the Soviet Union, Robert Glenn Thompson, 30, a former Air Force man, told newsmen:

"I never sold information to anyone. I've not been in contact with any Russian or anyone else like that. I am 100 per cent American and I always have been."

Yesterday, in U.S. District Court in Brooklyn, Thompson changed his plea to guilty and admitted he was a paid spy for six years, first in military life and later in civilian life.

He was continued free in bail of $15,000 for sentencing May 13. He could receive a death sentence, but his new plea probably will win him a degree of leniency.

Nasser Says Bonn Regime Treacherous

CAIRO (AP) — President Gamal Abdel Nasser hurled epithets at West Germany as representatives of the Arab nations gathered in Cairo today to discuss united action against the Bonn government for offering to establish diplomatic relations with Israel.

Accusing Chancellor Ludwig Erhard's regime of "betrayal, treason and treachery," Nasser told a cheering crowd yesterday that West Germany is "a dependent country and a tool in the hands of imperialists."

"I have never seen people so insolent in my life," Nasser declared. "They say Nasser is paving the way for communism, they, the world's worst imperialists. They deceive the people. They are liars. They said they were not giving arms to Israel but all the time they were. They have no honor, no conscience."

Nasser called for strengthening of Egypt's armed forces and a combined Arab military front against Israel.

"It is not logical that 2 million Jews should be equivalent to 100 million Arabs . . ." he said.

"None of the Arab states should enter a war with Israel alone. If we did, we would only suffer another defeat. We have to learn from our 1948 setback. And we must remember we will not enter Palestine on paths strewn with roses or spread with a red carpet but on ground soaked in blood."

Angel Island was originally called Nuestra Senora de los Angeles, thus giving it first claim to the name Los Angeles, bestowed six years later on a village 400 miles to the south.

BRITISH TAKE ACCENT OFF CLIPPED HAIR

LONDON (AP) — The British army abandoned another tradition today. Out of the Queen's Regulations goes paragraph 1015—"The hair of the head will be kept short."

"The day of the military crop is over," Army Secretary George Reynolds told the House of Commons.

But he said soldiers' hairdos must still be tidy. The change is intended to make army life more like civilian life.

"I've never heard of anything so silly," said Ronald Britain, a former regimental sergeant major in the Guards Brigade.

"If the army goes to these long-haired modern hair styles, the lads won't be able to hear their orders."

U.S. German Envoy Killed

LIMBURG, Germany (UPI)—Henry H. Ford, 52, the U.S. consul general in Frankfurt, was killed today in a highway accident that seriously injured his wife and chauffeur.

Police said Ford's car struck the rail dividing the autobahn superhighway near here and that Ford was thrown to the pavement, dying instantly.

Ford's chauffeur-driven car had swung onto the divider strip while trying to pass a Dutch truck and a German auto which had halted, police said.

Soviet Cosmic Probe Of Mars Alive—Close Pass Expected

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—Russia's Zond-2 cosmic probe, once reported dying in space, is today quite alive and headed toward a spectacular pass within 900 miles of the planet Mars next Aug. 6.

That is the word from Soviet academician Mstislav Keldysh as relayed by Dr. Charles S. Sheldin II, a member of the U.S. National Aeronautics and Space Council.

The U.S. Mariner-4 probe and Zond-2, launched last Nov. 28 and Nov. 30 respectively, are racing toward the mysterious red planet. The American entry, equipped with a television camera to take the first pictures of another planet, will get there first — next July 14.

But the Russian probe will reach much closer to Mars. Mariner-4 will pass about 5,400 miles from the planet on its photographic expedition.

In addition, Shelldon last night quoted Keldysh, a top-ranked Soviet space scientist, as saying Zond-2 weighs about 2,000 pounds — four times as much as the delicate U.S. probe.

Sheldon, considered one of the nation's foremost authorities on interpretation of the Soviet space program, speculated that Zond-2's considerable weight could mean "it may be doing something more than a simple fly-by" of Mars.

He did not elaborate. But one possibility is that the Soviets may attempt to drop at least part of Zond-2 through the Martian atmosphere.

This is a trick the United States has decided to put off until 1971, when it will launch at least two "Life-Searcher" payloads named Voyager to a landing on the Martian surface.

If Zond-2 manages any of this, it will mark a significant "return from the space grave" to which U.S. experts had assigned it after getting the word from Russia last December that the probe had run into communications troubles.

Gov. Brown Welcomes Probe Of 'Crime' In Fiscal Report

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Charging a Democratic legislator with "underhanded ... McCarthy-like" methods, Gov. Brown counterattacked today against a charge state officials may be guilty of falsifying spending records.

The governor, in one of his sharpest statements ever against a fellow Democrat, said he welcomed a probe of allegations by San Diego Democrat James R. Mills, chairman of the Assembly Rules Committee.

"I not only welcome an investigation of this matter by the district attorney, I demand it," the chief executive declared in a statement Monday night.

This followed a statement by Mills at an Assembly Ways and Means Committee hearing that there is "evidence of apparent wrongdoing and apparent crime" in the way the Public Health Department and the Finance Department handled a report on how $32,000 was spent.

"I have informed the district attorney of Sacramento County," Mills told the committee, but didn't amplify the remark.

His comments came in the midst of a hearing during which Democrats and Republicans joined in some of the most severe attacks on the governor's administration since his election in 1958.

They and Mills were upset because the administration transferred—without consulting them—$400,000 from one fund to another to finance contracts to aerospace firms so they could apply their knowledge toward solving civilian problems such as air pollution.

While questioning Brown's top aide, Finance Director Hale Champion, Mills produced a letter from Auditor General William H. Merrifield to Legislative Analyst A. Alan Post.

Mills, a Ways and Means member, read that Merrifield contended the Public Health Department was "misstating their expenditures in order to stay within budgeted appropriation," especially in reportedly charging $32,000 to one unspecified budget item when it actually was spent on another.

Then, Mills quoted state law making it illegal to falsify records or deliver records known to be false. That's when he made the "apparent crime" charge, as Champion stood about 10 feet away.

Later, Brown issued a statement declaring "This whole business would be absurd if it were not so McCarthy-like. This whole maneuver is one of the most underhanded attacks on the integrity of government ever made by anyone in this state, and it will not go unchallenged."

The governor defended the aerospace contracts, said the money Mills talked about wasn't connected with them, and said there had been "a groundless attack" on Champion.

Champion said in a companion statement, "I am astonished and appalled at ... Mills strange outburst ... I am not used to assemblymen of either party behaving like Joe McCarthy," a reference to the late Wisconsin Republican senator whose anti-Communist methods were sharply criticized.

Champion noted Mills didn't accuse anyone specifically of a crime or say one definitely had been committed. "Anybody in public life has to be prepared for this kind of bilge, but I would have preferred better company in the newspapers than Mr. Mills," Champion declared.

Mills was appointed this year to head the Rules Committee by Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Los Angeles. Unruh and Brown have sparred at various times, but Mills denied Unruh knew anything about the letter or his charges.

SACRAMENTO SUMMARY

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

THE GOVERNOR

Exposed Wire Proves Fatal

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The streetlight outside the bedroom window of Calvin Mark's apartment bothered him today.

So he put on black leather gloves, stepped onto a steel fire escape, and pulled off the light globe.

Clausen Urges Flood Control

I-J Special Report

WASHINGTON—Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-Crescent City, today asked government agencies to start a crash program to build major flood control dams on the Eel River in flood-stricken Northwestern California.

"Billions of cubic feet of water wrecked whole towns in racing down the river valleys to the ocean," Clausen told the opening session of the special flood control sub-committee.

"These floods must be controlled now as they have been in the Central Valley of California," he said.

Trial Is Scheduled In Burglary Case

Jury trial of Juan Jose Reimoneng, 19, charged with burglary, was scheduled yesterday in Marin Superior Court for March 16.

Reimoneng, of San Francisco, allegedly broke into Smith's Flying A Service, 7351 Redwood Highway, Novato, last July. Officers said eight tires were stolen.

Roving Fair For State Is Proposed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A San Diego legislator proposed today removing the State Fair from the capital and sending it on the road all over California.

"California is too big, and too important a state to be satisfied with a provincial State Fair," said Assemblyman James R. Mills, D-San Diego, in introducing the traveling fair bill.

Under his plan, any state agricultural district or county fair would be allowed to bid for the fair, with a commission choosing the best proposal. No area could host the exposition more than once in 10 years.

WILLING TO MOVE

"Once the people in San Diego, Los Angeles or Fresno have visited a State Fair close to home, they will be willing to travel to Sacramento, Oakland or even Eureka to see the next one. Now the local people, and those who follow racing, are the only ones who go back to the Sacramento fair year after year," Mills commented.

He suggested holding the fair in Sacramento through 1967, then moving it to Oakland in 1968, San Diego in 1969, Los Angeles in 1970, Fresno in 1971, Solano County in 1972 and Orange County in 1973. After that the competition would start.

PLAN RIPPED

Sacramento area legislators ripped Mills' proposal as "absurd" and "costly."

Assemblyman Edwin L. Z'berg, D-Sacramento, said the plan "makes about as much sense as moving the Capitol from one city to another. It would not only be extremely costly but would waste time, money and effort."

Homeowner Group Names Officers

Dr. Alvin S. Haag is the new president of the Marin Country Club Homeowners Assn.

Harold J. Keaton is the new vice president, Daniel P. Donovan, treasurer, and Mrs. Herbert G. Prodger, secretary.

Named to two-year terms on the board of directors were W. Walker Geddes, Charles M. Hancock, John Bermingham and Ralph C. Lewis. Holdover directors are Kelly Gaerety, Oliver E. Merwin, Anthony J. Wiechers and Dr. Fredrick J. Newirth.

Motorcycle Stolen

Douglas J. Matlock, of 1586 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo, told San Anselmo police last night someone took his black and white motorcycle between 6 and 9 p.m. while it was parked near 60 Redhill Avenue.

Rec Group May Get At-Large Members

Addition of two members-at-large to the county parks and recreation commission was informally agreed to last night during a workshop session of the board of supervisors and the commission.

The group agreed that the enlarged commission would broaden county representation and lighten the burden of an unusual meeting and work schedule of the present commissioners.

Gibbs H. Lawson, commission chairman, suggested appointing all of the commissioners on an at-large basis might be of benefit to the county. After discussion, the group agreed to continue the present method of each supervisor nominating a person to serve on the commission.

Board chairman Peter H. Behr emphasized that the success of the commission would depend on the supervisors appointing the best persons to the job, whether or not the appointee was a resident of his nominating supervisor's district.

County Administrator Alan Bruce said the ordinance establishing the parks and recreation commission contained a requirement for "representation of each supervisorial district." He said this is not a residence requirement.

(County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney, queried on this today, confirmed that there is no residence requirement. The ordinance setting up the parks and recreation commission, which was drawn when Leland H. Jordan was county counsel, says: "Members of said commission shall be representative of the five supervisorial districts, with each supervisor nominating one member." Liberally interpreted, Maloney said, this would mean that a supervisor might name anyone he felt would represent his district, regardless of whether the person lived in the district or even in the county.)

The supervisors asked that the county counsel prepare amendments to the ordinance for presentation at a regular meeting of the board.

The proposed amendments include two-year terms for the new commission members-at-large. Several sections of the present ordinance which the supervisors feel are obsolete would be deleted.

It was agreed that the two new members would be appointed for a one-year and a two-year term, to be replaced or re-appointed to two-year terms at the end of the first term.

Commissioner Adele J. Alpers was absent.

General Plan Meeting Set For Larkspur

After a long spell of waiting for federal aid approval, the Larkspur Citizens Advisory Committee on the general plan will hold a meeting at 8 p.m. today at the city hall.

The committee has been slightly revamped, according to planning consultant John David Erickson. Memebers of the city council and planning commission will not be included.

The committee, with about 30 members, will discuss a wide range of subjects, seeking basic goals and principles, according to Erickson.

Included will be talk about the proposed city civic center development and yacht harbor at the present county dump, business conditions and revamping of the old downtown area, and possibility of bringing light industry into the city.

Russians Claim Ship Is Buzzed

LONDON (AP) — Moscow radio claimed that a U.S. military plane buzzed the Soviet merchant ship Poronaysk in the South China Sea today.

It also claimed the Soviet vessel was pursued for 10 hours by the U.S. destroyer Wiltsie.

Marin May Get Library Commission

Marin County supervisors today agreed to consider establishing a library commission.

They asked County Administrator Alan Bruce to confer with Mrs. Virginia Keating, county librarian, on size and function of the potential commission and report to to board within a few weeks.

Supervisors also agreed to reappoint Gibbs Lawson, chairman of the county parks and recreation commission, as a member of the commission at-large as soon as a new ordinance expanding the commission is adopted.

Lawson, of Dillon Beach, is now in the fifth supervisorial district, and will be in the fourth supervisoral district after June 30 as the result of re-districting. The fourth district already is represented on the commission by Lother Salin, and the fifth district has two members, Lawson and Mrs. Elizabeth Banning Davies.

The board appointed Philip S. Ehrlich Jr. of Belvedere to the Mrain County Redevelopment Agency Commission in January.

Supervisors postponed naming a replacement on the housing authority to fill the term of Nels Johnson, who resigned, and postponed filling two seats on the redevelopment agency, one left vacant by Johnson and the other by Alton Lerch.

They confirmed appointment of Harry Sutcliffe as a member of the Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District board, and appointed Joseph L. Smith Jr. to the Kentfield Fire District board for a three-year term starting April 20. Smith was the only candidate for the post.

Brothers Hurt In Cycle Crash

Two teen-aged brothers were hurt Sunday when the motorcycle they were riding hit a dog in front of 314 Mountain View Avenue, San Rafael, throwing both youths to the pavement.

In satisfactory condition today at San Rafael General Hospital was Albert P. Storer, 17, of 38 Williams Street. He suffered a broken right collarbone and scraped knee.

Richard D. Storer, 14, was treated for a bruised chest.

Police said the small dog ran in front of the cycle as the brothers were going down a hill. It escaped.

Suitcases Stolen From Car's Trunk

Two suitcases were stolen from the automobile of a couple in the process of moving from San Francisco to Sausalito last night while the car was parked outside their new apartment at 100 South Street.

One contained clothing; the other, $4,160 worth of jewelry.

Harry A. Swayze, a real estate broker, told Sausalito police at 10:05 a.m. today of his loss, which he said occurred between 5:15 and 6:45 p.m. yesterday while he and his wife were inside the apartment.

The suitcases were stolen from the locked trunk of the car, he said.

Hit-Run Citation Dismissed By Judge

A hit-run traffic citation issued Mrs. Margaret E. Aylwin, 41, of 60 Wellington Avenue, Ross, last Feb. 10 by California Highway Patrol has been dismissed for insufficient evidence by Judge Peter Allen Smith of Marin Municipal Court.

The charge was filed after Mrs. Alywin allegedly struck an automobile with her vehicle on Kent Avenue in Kentfield, then left without stopping.

Embarcadero Freeway To Bridge Favored

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—City supervisors voiced interest today in two suggestsions by the State Division of Highways for a freeway linking the Embarcadero to the Golden Gate Bridge.

Estimated to cost between $85 million and $270 million, one plan calls for a tunnel through Telegraph and Russian hills. The other route would go around Telegraph Hill and between North Point and Bay streets.

"It's the best thing they've come up with yet," said Supervisor William C. Blake. The plans were placed before the Board of Supervisors yesterday.

Blake, a leader in defeating the proposed Golden Gate Freeway, is chairman of joint transportation - planning and development committees which will open hearings on the proposals March 25.

A public hearing by the state Division of Highways will be held April 9 in Nourse Auditorium. Division officials estimate the proposed freeway could accommodate between 80,000 and 137,000 cars daily by 1985 as a link between the Bay and Golden Gate bridges.

The president of the Board of Supervisors, Joseph E. Tinney, said he believed the proposed plans "can spur new developments on the northern waterfront and on the Marina."

The proposed tunnel route would take out residences in an 11-block stretch of Greenwich Street for a depressed eight-lane freeway. The other route would take out 322 dwellings between Columbus and Polk. It would be landscaped and depressed through the south edge of Fort Mason.

Dominican Honor Group Names Nine

Nine students from Marin County were accepted as members of the Dominican Convent Upper School chapter of the National Honor Society at a meeting Sunday night.

Student body president Bridget Fahy, junior Carolyn Cox, and graduates Mrs. Robert Lashly of San Rafael and Mrs. Walter DeRaria led a discussion of "Discipline and the Disciplines in Education."

MAYOR

meeting set for next Monday at 8 p.m.

Lawrence is the senior member of the Fairfax Council and has lived at 334 Cascade Drive, Fairfax, since 1947.

Before his election to the council in 1962, he served as chairman of the city's parks and recreation commission. He is an administrative assistant to the Army Reserve in San Francisco and is a retired Army sergeant major.

Mrs. Lestanguet, who lives at 135 Meernaa Avenue, was appointed deputy city clerk last April after working for three years for the city as a part-time office worker. She has prior bookkeeping, shorthand and typing experience in business.

Sailor Suspect In Car Theft

An 18-year-old sailor from San Francisco, David Stuart Benedict, was booked in Marin County Jail at 7 a.m. today for investigation of car theft after allegedly being found in a stolen vehicle in Santa Venetia.

Sheriff's deputies said Benedict apparently stalled his own car on a bank in the 200 block of North San Pedro Road, walked to the car of Eustacia Gutierrez, at 245 North San Pedro Road, and moved it a short distance before stopping it and falling asleep.

He was also booked for being drunk. Total bail of $1,210 was set.

Marijuana Case Trial Scheduled

Jury trial for Thomas C. Mix, 28, charged with illegal possession of marijuana, was scheduled yesterday in Marin Superior Court for April 20.

Mix, of 100 Palm Avenue, Corte Madera, allegedly had a marijuana cigarette in his car last Dec. 10 when halted during a traffic check. Corte Madera police said a later search of his home led to discovery of more marijuana.

Hiking, Riding Trails Urged In Mill Valley

"Mark the maps with hiking and riding trails before permitting, the bulldozers to begin work," about 30 trail fans told the Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Commission last night.

The commission requested city planning director Harvey E. Bragdon to mark exact routes of trails in the North Ridge master plan previously approved by the city council.

The trail fans were specifically concerned over bulldozing which has been started by Goheen Construction Co. for homes on "Kite Hill," reported Dean Meyer, commission chairman.

Commissioners recommended to city council that flying of model airplanes be permitted on Project 17 but recommended against golf practice there.

Vandals Damage Road Equipment

Vandals ripped upholstery and bent levers on heavy-duty Marin County road department equipment parked near the Point Reyes-Petaluma Road by the Joslin gravel plant, sheriff's officers reported today.

Officers said Richard J. Velloza, a department foreman, said the damage occurred to a grader, a loader, and a tractor Sunday night or early yesterday.

Independent-Journal Moves Novato Office

The North Marin County Office of the Independent-Journal has moved from the rear to new and larger offices at the front of the Patio Building at 864 Grant Avenue, Novato.

The mailing address and phone number are the same. The only difference is that the office is now located directly on Grant Avenue where it is more easily accessible from the street.

AIA Honorary Membership Granted

Melton Ferris of 460 Nova Albion Way, San Rafael, has been awarded an honorary membership in the American Institute of Architects for "distinguished service to the profession of architecture."

Ferris has been executive director of the California Council of the AIA for 11 years.

LEONARD SHAW
Scale raised to hire him

D. A. Gets Choice For Aide

Marin County supervisors today approved a higher pay scale for assistant district attorney to enable Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales to hire the man of his choice.

They then promptly approved appointment of Leonard Shaw, 32, of Corte Madera to the post, at $1,008 per month—well above the minimum of $914 set in the new scale, which runs to a maximum of $1,111. The former scale was $829 to $1,008.

Bales asked the increase to make possible hiring Shaw. He said he had difficulty recruiting men he considered qualified at the lower scale.

Shaw, who resides at 6 Golden Hind Passage, will start work March 22.

The board also raised the salary range for assistant county counsel to the same level, and gave Richard Godino, the incumbent, a $90 hike, from $870 to $960 a month, second step in the new range.

For the past five years, Shaw has been a trial attorney with Hoberg, Finger, Brown and Abramson in San Francisco, specializing in personal injury litigation.

He is a graduate of Northwestern University, and received his law degree in 1956 from University of Missouri, where he was a national vice president of American Law Student Assn.

He served in the Army on the legal staff for general court martial cases at Fort Riley, Kans., and at the Presidio in San Francisco, and is adjutant of the reserve Fifth Judge Advocate Detachment, San Francisco.

He and his wife, Judith, have two sons. They have resided three years in Marin County.

Youths Cited In Burglaries

Four Fairfax youths were cited to the probation office yesterday by sheriff's deputies for burglary of the Fairfax summer home of John L. Lillienthal, San Francisco.

William Johansen, juvenile deputy, said the quartet, aged 12 to 15, broke into the house on Monte Vista Road early last month and took two cases of liquor.

The liquor was divided and buried in various places near the house, Johansen said. He said the youths drank part of it and the remainder was recovered. Entry to the house was by forcing French doors.

Novato Junior High Prom Theme Is Set

"Shangri-La" will be the theme of the Novato High School junior prom on April 24, from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. in the old high school gymnasium.

Lanterns, bamboo screens and other oriental decorations are being planned, according to Kathy Heyman, junior class president and general chairman of the dance.

Christmas Tree Hill Taxes May Be Hiked

Christmas Tree Hill dwellers in Corte Madera last night heard County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel say their area is under scrutiny this year for possible changes in the property assessments.

Broemmel said he expects no drastic shake-up of values, such as happened last year in Sausalito and West Marin.

Speaking as chairman of the Local Agency Formation Commission, Broemmel said the idea of merging the cities of Larkspur and Corte Madera was definitely worth study. He said that any merging of governmental units should produce some saving.

Town Councilman Charles F. Pendleton said, in a separate talk to the group on problems and projects for the town, that he has an open mind on the merger question, but he said nothing can be done about it immediately.

Pendleton said major projects for the future would include new access to the Paradise area along the Northwestern Pacific right of way east of the end of Tamalpais Drive, boat docking facilities on either San Clemente or Corte Madera Creek, and protection of open water area in the waterfront of the town.

He said any new flood control ponds developed by the town should have public recreation access.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Take Care When Riding Escalator; Stay Sober When In Your Garden

VAN DELLEN

Serious injury from escalator accidents is not common. However, the Otis Elevator Co. recorded 2,897 injuries of this nature, of which 8 per cent were serious. The most dangerous areas are the narrow spaces between the moving step and the stationary comb plate at the top and bottom of the stairs and the space between the moving handrail and the fixed balustrade.

Four such injuries in children were reported in the New England Journal of Medicine. They said the escalator industry has included narrow gauge step treads to discourage falling, along with handrails that extend beyond the moving surface to improve entrance and exit passenger stability. Automatic switches are incorporated to stop the stairs when an object is caught in the lower landing to insure maximum passenger safety. Some of the old escalators do not have these features.

INEBRIATION IN a rose garden does not appear to be as risky as driving while drunk but a certain steelworker may disagree. His experience was reported in the Annals of Internal Medicine by three Pittsburgh physicians. He enjoyed the roses and whisky and the more he drank the more rosy he got. He suffered many deep pricks from the rose thorns because of carelessness. On one occasion he was pricked so deeply on the lower arm that a fungus on the thorn entered a tendon. The wrist became swollen, painful, and red.

What happened? He spent more than a year in and out of hospitals before recovering from this unusual infection. Several operations were done and he received all of the modern drugs known to kill fungi.

IT IS UNUSUAL to be struck by lightning and even more so when pregnant. This occurred to a young Welsh woman during the first three months of pregnancy; she recovered and delivered a normal child. She was standing with her husband and father-in-law inside a sheep pen covered with a corrugated metal sheet. The edge of this roof was near the nape of her neck.

The lightning knocked the three several feet from where they were standing. Despite extensive burns, they managed to get to a nearby farmhouse.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

SCALP IRRITATION

P. T. writes: About three years ago, after I had my hair bleached, my scalp broke out in scabs and sores. This irritation continues, no matter what kind of shampoo I use. Could you recommend something for this condition?

REPLY

See a dermatologist because your scalp condition may be unrelated to the bleach. The cause may be psoriasis, ringworm, or allergy to soap or cosmetics.

RECOVERY AFTER MENINGITIS

A. O. writes: Can health be regained completely after an attack of spinal meningitis?

REPLY

Yes. Residual brain changes occur but the majority of victims recover completely.

FALSE ALARM

E. P. D. writes: Is it true that after a false pregnancy, it is more difficult to carry a child to term?

REPLY

SKIN CANCER

Mr. H. writes: Do physicians still agree that skin cancer cannot be passed to others by contact?

REPLY

Yes.

time is ripe. You shall reap what you sowed."

Ten minutes after the march started, Negroes and their white companions were still pouring out of the assembly area behind the church.

Some of them carried placards.

Many of the out-of-state white religious leaders, including clergymen from New York, Boston and Washington, D.C., wore clerical collars and dress. Others were dressed in business suits.

Scores of Negro students and teen-agers were in the line of march. Hundreds of other Negroes, not joining the procession, watched from across the street.

City and county police kept sharp watch on the marchers. More than a dozen FBI agents stood by making photographers and taking notes.

A few minutes before the march began, LeRoy Collins, former governor of Florida and head of the federal Community Relations Council, met with Sheriff James G. Clark—symbol of resistance to the Negro voter drive.

Clark's militant segregationist stand and the more than 3,000 arrests made by him and his deputies have brought sharp criticism from various sections of the nation.

Later, Collins declined to tell newsmen what he had discussed with Clark. He said he also had met with King and Col. Albert J. Lingo, commander of the state troopers.

OBITUARIES

Marvin G. Morgan Dies At 57

Marvin G. Morgan, 57, of 405 D Street, San Rafael, was found dead on the kitchen floor of his home at 5 p.m. yesterday, apparently victim of a heart attack.

Police said Morgan's wife, Beulah, returned from work and found her husband lying on the floor next to an overturned chair.

Asst. Marin County Coroner William C. Bradley said he apparently had been dead for several hours.

Bradley said Morgan had a history of heart disorder. He had complained of chest pains yesterday morning. An autopsy was scheduled.

Morgan was a native of Missouri. He came to California 30 years ago, and had lived in Marin County 26 years. He spent 26 years as a bridge and building carpenter for the Northwestern Pacific Railroad, retiring four years ago.

Surviving are his wife, a sister, Mrs. Nola Underwood of Visalia; five brothers, Thomas Morgan of Arcata, Clifford Morgan of Rio Dell, James Morgan of Anaheim, and Ernest and Eugene Morgan of Skiatook, Okla.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

MRS. ANDREWS

Requiem Mass will be offered for Evangeline Marie Andrews, 80, of Vallejo, mother of Mrs. Janis Wade of San Rafael, at St. Vincent's Catholic Church, 925 Sacramento Street, Vallejo, at 9 a.m. Thursday.

Mrs. Andrews died Sunday in a Oakland hospital after a long illness.

She was a native of Canada and had lived in Vallejo for 35 years.

She was the widow of CWO John J. Andrews Sr. (USN Ret.) who died in 1957 after more than 30 years with the Navy.

She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Wade and Mrs. Justin Bennett of Dallas, Tex.; a son, John J. Andrews Jr. of Los Banos, Merced County; a sister, Mrs. Melina Cyr of Massachusetts, five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Twin Chapels Mortuary, 1100 Tennessee Street, Vallejo. Burial will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

PAUL SPARKS

Paul E. Sparks of 45 Via Belardo, Greenbrae, died at a local hospital today after an extended illness. He was 61 years old.

He was owner of Star Automotive Distributors in San Francisco.

Sparks was a native of Des Moines, Iowa, and had lived in Marin eight years, moving here from San Francisco.

He leaves his wife, Euvolta Sparks.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

GEORGE USTLER

Funeral for George H. Ustler, 79, father of Mrs. Helen Schafer of San Anselmo, will be held at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow at Eggen and Lance Mortuary in Santa Rosa.

Ustler, a native of Ohio and former San Anselmo resident, died Saturday in a Healdsburg hospital after a short illness.

Before retirement, he had worked as a dairy manager in Washington. He was a member of the Elks Lodge of Port Angeles, Wash.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Schafer and Mrs. Lucy Megus of Santa Rosa; a brother, Clarence Ustler of Florida, and four grandchildren.

Associate Warden James W. L. Park said Flakes was taken to the hospital in a semi-conscious state at 7:50 a.m.

Flakes was serving a five-to-15-year sentence for a 1964 conviction for possessing narcotics to sell them in Los Angeles County.

CARD OF THANKS

LOVING WIFE GLADYS, McCARTHY, VINCENT WILLIAM—In loving memory of a wonderful husband and dad, who passed away March 9, 1956.

Time has changed the face of things
Since you went away!
There's almost nothing here that you
Would recognize today;
Yet could you look into our hearts
You'd see there still tonight
The love you lighted long ago
Like votive candles, burning bright.

Prisoner's Execution Is Ordered

Nathaniel Gaines, 27, of Los Angeles County, has been ordered executed April 13, San Quentin Prison officials said yesterday.

Gaines was convicted in 1961 of the murder of an elderly grocery store proprietor in Los Angeles County during a robbery. Gaines has spent the time since then in seeking appeals and delays. His last action was a petition for a writ of certiorari which was denied by the United States Supreme Court. The execution date was set by Los Angeles County Superior Court Judge J. Howard Ziemann.

The last time a death row inmate faced an execution date was when Oscar Ship was ordered executed last September. Ship won a stay to allow him to take further legal action.

The last execution in California took place Jan. 23, 1963.

Gaines' attorney, William B. Wolfson of Fairfax said his next step will be to file a petition for a new sentencing trial based on the California Supreme Court's Morse decision. In that decision, the court granted a new sentencing trial because the prosecution presented testimony concerning how soon the convict could be paroled if he were given a life sentence.

No Attorney; Release Ordered

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Federal District Judge Stanley A. Weigel has ordered a San Quentin prisoner who was jailed 11 years ago on his plea of guilty, to be freed because he had no attorney—but gave the state a week to file an appeal.

Fred Russell Harris, 45, was paroled twice and returned twice to San Quentin as a parole violator. He entered a guilty plea in 1954 when tried for the $5,500 robbery of a San Jose market.

Judge Weigel ordered Harris released on a writ of habeas corpus, but stayed the order until March 15 to allow an appeal by the California attorney general.

Bermuda Palms Pickets Called Off After Pact

Pickets were called off from Bermuda Palms Restaurant in San Rafael yesterday afternoon, as the hotel owner and the unions "reached mutual understanding satisfactory to all parties."

The joint announcement that agreement had been reached came from Irving (Whitey) Litchfield, owner of Bermuda Palms, and Ray Markt, business representative of Bartenders and Culinary Workers Local 126. The union was represented by San Rafael attorney Richard H. Breiner.

The union posted pickets at the restaurant last week, charging Litchfield refused to sign a collective bargaining agreement.

Yesterday, Markt and Litchfield announced the hotel owner had signed an agreement.

"No one won any battles, and no one has given in," said Litchfield. "I've agreed to the terms, but only for myself and not for any other restaurant or association of restaurants."

Daylight Saving Time Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill has been introduced in the Senate which would standardize the changeover to and from Daylight Saving Time throughout the country.

Its sponsors, Sens. Gale McGee, D-Wyo., and Norris Cotton, R-N.H., said daylight time is used in 31 states with a variety of effective dates.

They said their bill would not impose or deny daylight time on any state, but would require that it start on the last Sunday of April and end on the last Sunday in October.

Threat Of Gas Chamber Removed For Mrs. Miller

SAN BERNARDINO (AP) — The prosecution has removed the threat of the gas chamber for Mrs. Lucille Miller, who was due to undergo a penalty hearing today for the fiery auto death of her dentist husband.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Don A. Turner said yesterday he will advise the judge at her penalty hearing that "society will be amply protected with her receiving a life sentence."

Mrs. Miller, 35, pregnant with her fourth child, was convicted last Friday of the first-degree murder of her dentist husband, Dr. Gordon E. Miller, 39, by setging fire to the family car in which he burned to death last Oct. 8.

Turner said the decision against requesting the death penalty was made at a conference including Dist. Atty. Lowell Lathrop and Sheriff Frank Bland.

Meanwhile, attorney George Vinnedge filed a petition Monday in Ontario Superior Court, asking that attorney Harold Lance be appointed guardian of Mrs. Miller's daughter, two sons and the baby she expects in May. The petition was signed by Mrs. Miller.

Master Plan Speed-Up Agreed

By ALAN CUNNINGHAM

First step toward speeding up work on a county-wide master plan came yesterday in a joint meeting of the Marin County Board of Supervisors and the county planning commission.

After airing their views for two hours, the two groups agreed that commissioners would deliver a proposal on the project to supervisors by May 1.

Facing each other around a large table in one of Marin Civic Center's fourth floor conference rooms, all seemed to agree with these general principles set forth by Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker:

1. The county should be master planned "as soon as possible."

2. Such planning should have the backing of the cities.

3. The plans should be followed up with appropriate zoning in each area.

There was less agreement, however, on whether a stepped-up master plan project should involve contracting with outside consultants or increasing the county planning staff.

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen said he favored the use of staff members, since consultants might be less aware of local needs and interests.

Leydecker later scoffed at the implication that a professional planner would be an "outside ogre, thwarting the people's will." He contended that building up the county planning staff could "create an empire" of persons who would not be needed after the job was done.

Chairman Peter H. Behr of the board of supervisors, who chaired the meeting, asked each supervisor and commissioner in turn for his views, including an estimate as to how long it should take to complete the plan.

Most replies ran from 18 months to two years, but several members said they did not feel a realistic answer was possible.

This view was shared by Planning Director B. D. Dobbs, who warned these were "overly optimistic estimates." He predicted a two and one-half year absolute minimum, and warned that it might be closer to five years.

Responding to earlier comments about the need for cooperation between the county and its cities, Dobbs said Marin "must also look toward problems which exist between the county and the region. Cooperation must not be only downward."

Commissioner Margaret Azevedo said she felt the county must decide whether it planned to "fill in the blank spaces" on its existing, partly finished plans, or take a new, over-all view of such basic policy problems as traffic, open space for recreation, and industry.

Dobbs said such philosophical decisions must dovetail with regional studies on these problems, many of which will be several years in coming.

On the qeustion of "inside" vs. "outside" planners, Dobbs made a frank appeal for the county to start thinking about expanding his staff.

The two groups, he said, were "judging what the local staff can do based on years of understaffing. Don't underestimate what a proper staff can do."

Observing that such joint sessions seem to help improve communication between the board and the planning commission, Behr said they might be scheduled on a regular basis, with the next one in about a month.

Tomales High Work Costs May Increase

It may cost more to rehabilitate the old buildings at Tomales High School than the bond money voted for the job, Tomales High School District trustees learned last night from architect George Quesada.

Rapp Construction Co. of Santa Rosa made a preliminary estimate of $177,000 to rehabilitate the old buildings, Quesada said. Voters of the district approved a $175,000 bond issue in January, 1964, which was to also include a new shop building.

The board set a special meeting for March 29 to go over the plans with the architect to see if the cost could be held within the money available.

The trustees got bad news of another kind, too: The junior class at Tomales High scored at the lower end of "normal" in ability and below average in achievement in recent state tests, Supt. Anthony Matulich reported.

The Tomales High School District board also:

1. Called for bids on a 72-passenger school bus, to be opened April 12.

2. Received official canvass of the Feb. 16 tax limit election, showing 663 yes to 69 no. This allows levying up to $1.25 per $100 assessed valuation for the general operating fund portion of the district's tax rate.

Churchwoman's Death Has Police Baffled

BERKELEY — Police remained baffled today as to why churchwoman and charity worker Helen Young Farmer, 74, was bludgeoned and strangled — but they think she may have let her killer in the front door.

There was no sign of robbery or sexual attack in the home of the prominent attorney's widow, and no sign of forced entry. Churchwomen friends who called for breakfast on Sunday morning had to borrow a key from Mrs. Farmer's daughter-in-law next door, to enter the home and find the body.

Police and Mrs. Farmer's pastor, Rev. Elvin M. Smith of St. Clement's Episcopal Church, thinks the victim may have opened the door to someone who told her a "hard-luck" story. Otherwise the door may have been left unlocked, and was locked when the killer departed, or the killer may have had a key. A number of University of California students roomed in the home in former years; police said none of the recent tenants were implicated after questioning.

Many Novato residents recall one of the murdered woman's sons, Rev. Peter James Farmer. He was pastor of St. Francis Episcopal Mission in Novato for seven years, leaving in August, 1956, for duties in Panama. He now is at the York School and All Souls Episcopal Church in Carmel.

Demo Club Elects

Sophomore Robert Foster of Greenbrae has been elected vice president of the Redwood High School Democratic Club. He joins officers Frank Guthrie, president; Betty Prang, secretary, and Gretchen Walford, treasurer, all of whom were previously elected.

Kentfield School Pay Hikes Studied

Pay raise requests averaging 3.77 per cent for teachers and 6.9 per cent for non-teachers were taken under advisement last night by the Kentfield School District board.

Supt. Howard C. Harmon said he expected no decision until after the district's tax election and the area unification election, to be held April 20.

The board approved preliminary plans for conversion of a classroom into a library and construction of a storage room at Greenbrae School, but held up approval on construction of shower and locker rooms at the Adaline E. Kent School.

Harmon reported the proposed teacher pay increase would cost the district about $35,000 next year. The requested pay raise for other employees would raise cost about $7,200.

On April 20 voters in the district will vote on a 25-cent increase in the general purpose tax rate, raising the general purpose tax limit to $2.50 per $100 assessed valuation. The district's present total tax rate, including override taxes and bond redemption, is $3.08.

The Kent School construction project was delayed after Peter Skaer of the architectural firm of Corlett and Spackman, San Francisco, suggested that rather than building new shower rooms and lockers, the present shop area be converted to that use and a new shop be constructed instead. Skaer was asked to return with definite cost figures to see if there would be any saving.

The board hired Harold C. Day as inspector for the construction project at Wolfe Grade School, replacing L. M. Nerdahl, who resigned because of illness.

Plan Due Review, Minus Tidelands

Both the San Rafael and Marin County planning commissions will review the San Rafael General Plan—minus the tidelands acreage — for resubmission to the city council.

That was the council's instruction last night at its third public hearing on the plan.

The hearing in the city recreation center drew only about 60 people—roughly a fifth of the number who turned out for the first and second hearings, held while "bay fill by San Rafael" was an issue in the supervisorial election.

The referral back to the city planning commission was a foregone conclusion, but — as Mayor John F. McInnis pointed out — inclusion of the county planning commission marked a first time for such joint effort by city and county.

The plan, even without the tidelands, includes much acreage outside the present San Rafael city limits. The planning area embraces all of the San Pedro Peninsula and Las Gallinas-Lucas valleys.

Daniel P. Coleman, who, with William E. Spangle, developed the general plan, recommended deletion of the controversial tidelands portion. He suggested it be shown on the general plan map as a "reserved" area.

Mayor McInnis and Councilman Louis H. Baar — the only councilman joining to any extent in the discussion—had considerable difficulty trying to explain to some in the audience that "reserved area" merely meant reserved for further study and did not constitute any moratorium on the tidelands. Their status, the mayor pointed out, would remain as it has been up to now—unzoned and subject to limited controls.

The council followed Coleman's suggestion that, while the state, Assn. of Bay Area Governments and Bay Area Transportation Study Commission are plotting the bay's future, the city should study a program of public purchase of tidelands.

Mayor McInnis said it might be possible to get federal open spaces funds to pay 30 per cent of the cost of such tidelands as the city undertook to purchase. He suggested the city also pay 30 per cent, and the county, conservation groups and the state likewise be asked to participate. He cited the proposed purchase of the salt works canal area by the county, Tiburon and the Marin Conservation League as a precedent.

McInnis repeatedly stressed, however, that he thought it impossible to purchase all the tidelands under discussion, as "there just won't be that much money."

"Some future city council must insist that control measures be included for the rest of the tideland areas," he declared.

William F. Upton of the county planning commission suggested that, instead of being left unzoned, the tidelands be marked "recreational" on the general plan. McInnis retorted that he felt this would be deluding purchasers of nearby property. He accused the county of deluding Terra Linda purchasers by designating as parks lands which the county had no program to buy.

Willis Evans of the State Fish and Game Department suggested that the privately owned tidelands be zoned as open space. He was informed this cannot legally be done. (The question was researched for the county by former County Counsel E. Warren McGuire some time ago.)

Franklin Battat, president of the Loch Lomond Home Owners Assn., said his group would have some objections to the proposed Paganini Point bridge across the San Rafael Canal to raise during planning commission hearings on the amended plan.

The motion for referral, by Councilman Fred E. Jensen, was passed unanimously.

Angel Island Park Future To Be Topic

"The future of Angel Island as a recreation facility" will be the topic of a public meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Del Mar School in Tiburon.

Gordon T. Kishbaugh, district superintendent for the State Division of Beaches and Parks, will be main speaker at the meeting sponsored by the Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council. The park is almost entirely within the city limits of Tiburon.

San Rafael's official U.S. census in 1960 was 20,460. The Jan. 1, 1965 estimate is 30,517.

No Change In Hospital Rates

Directors of the San Rafael General Hospital Foundation last night agreed to make no change in rates at this time.

Current rates are $27 a day for a room with three or more beds, $29 for a semi-private room and $32 for a private room.

Administrator Arthur G. Burns reported that directors approved admission of Drs. William Dickerson and John Swieconek to the medical staff.

Couple Improving After Auto Crash

A San Francisco couple, hurt in a Highway 101 crash Saturday, showed improvement today at Marin General Hospital.

Anna Dolgushkin, 57, was said to be in good condition today. Her husband, Efim Dolgushkin, 65, remained in fair condition but was improving. They suffered broken ribs and facial cuts when their car was hit from behind and rolled several times on the Lucky Drive overpass.

Sausalito Home Is Burglarized

Burglars broke into the Sausalito home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. McNabb while the McNabbs were in Nevada during the weekend and took an undetermined amount of loot, police said today.

An inventory of missing items is being made by the McNabbs. Known missing are men's and women's clothing including a fur coat.

Someone forced open the back door to enter the house at 20 Prospect Avenue. A neighbor reported to police Sunday that she found one door open.

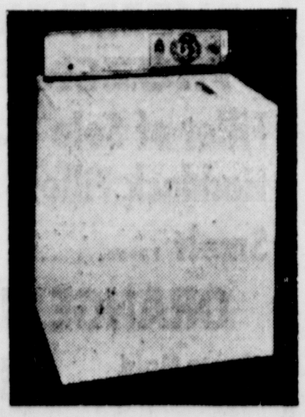

Woman Pleads Guilty To Worthless Checks

Sybil Mae Morgan, 34, of Lynwood, Los Angeles County, pleaded guilty in Marin Superior Court yesterday to passing worthless checks last December in San Rafael.

Sentence will be pronounced March 29. She passed worthless checks for $86.79 and $55.50 at Marcus Shop for Men and Boys, 1130 Fourth Street, on Dec. 18-19, and a $22.21 check on Dec. 19 at Mode O'Day, 1109 Fourth Street.

Funeral Signs, Motor Stolen

Thefts of an outboard motor and a mortuary's parking signs were among those reported by San Rafael police today.

Doris C. Feldmann of 75 Summit Avenue, San Rafael, said her family returned home yesterday after four days absence and found the motor had been stolen from a boat in front of their home.

Ten wooden signs and three iron posts were stolen from the parking lot at Keaton's Mortuary, 1022 E Street, employee Frank Koening reported.

Koening said he looked out an upstairs window at 8:30 a.m. yesterday to see two youths get out of a car and start to take the signs. By the time he ran downstairs, they had driven away.

San Rafael schools were the victims of two thefts reported by police today, but one occurred eight days ago.

District maintenance director John A. Thomas Jr. said an $18 battery was taken from a district-owned 1965 Plymouth, parked in the San Rafael High School maintenance yard during the weekend.

The high school's principal, Alfred N. Thomson, reported that $17.48 in change was taken from the school library. The report was delayed, Thomson said, because he was ill during the week.

Two brass outdoor light fixtures, worth a total of $171, were stolen from a house at 4 Flamingo Lane, during the weekend, owner Frank M. Burke of 301 Oak Crest Road, San Anselmo, told police.

Lucille J. Locati of 93 Jewell Street reported a $45 transistor radio had been stolen from her unlocked station wagon, parked on Woodland Avenue near DuBois Street.

Superintendent Kenneth G. Johnson of Danbo Construction Co. complained that 28 pieces of lumber were taken from a construction site at 72 Brentwood Drive between 4:30 p.m. Friday and 9 a.m. yesterday. The lumber was valued at $60.

'Kissing Bandit' Escapes

Convicted "kissing bandit" Robert Winslow, 33, escaped last night from San Quentin Prison conservation camp at Orick, Humboldt County.

Winslow was missed at the 9 p.m. count. Prison officials alerted police. They presume he was wearing blue denim pants and khaki jacket.

Associated Warden James W. L. Park said Winslow had been denied parole for another year at a February hearing.

He was convicted of first degree robbery and burglary in San Francisco in 1952. This carried a five-year to life sentence.

He was paroled twice, in 1955 and 1961. The first time he stayed out 14 months, He was returned to San Quentin in Februruray, 1964, for violation of his second parole, and went to the camp last June.

Newspaper stories in the 1950s dubbed Winslow and his brother Theodore "the kissing bandits" because they sometimes bussed their women victims.

New Conservation Group To Meet

The newly formed San Rafael unit of the Marin Conservation Council will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday in Room 426 of the Civic Center, according to Mrs. Arthur Knutson of 639 Barberry Lane, Terra Linda.

This will be an organizational meeting, Mrs. Knutson said.

Woman Treated For Auto Fall

Barabara Sue Brix, 23, of Cupertino, was in satisfactory condition today at Kaiser Hospital in Oakland, under treatment for a skull fracture suffered when she fell from the fender of her husband's car at a San Rafael restaurant Sunday.

She reportedly jumped on the car when her husband tried to drive off without her after an argument. He stopped and she fell, police said.

Car Theft Attempt Thwarted

Two unidentified men thwarted a youth's attempt to steal a woman's car from the parking lot at Macy's department store, Fourth and Court streets, San Rafael, at 8:45 p.m. yesterday.

Forty-five minutes later, a San Rafael police officer arrested Robert Keith Russell, 19, of 53 Bayo Vista Way, San Rafael, and charged him with the attempted theft.

The car owner, Gayle Shanahan of 35 Belle Avenue, told police she and a companion saw a youth get in her car and try to drive it away. As she cried out, two passers-by halted the car. The youth jumped out and ran down the street.

Miss Shanahan and her friend, Barbara Fennigan of 6 Crestwood Drive, got in a patrol car with Officer Donald M. Rose and rode around the area to see if they could spot the youth.

As Rose waited for a red light at Fourth Street and Lootens Place, Russell crossed the street in front of the car. Miss Shanahan and Miss Fennigan said he was the thief.

Selma Troop Actions Hit

A resolution holding Alabama Gov. George Wallace responsible for alleged violence used by state troopers against civil rights demonstrators Sunday in Selma was adopted by directors of the Marin Committee for Fair Play last night.

The directors urged the federal government to "take immediate steps to avoid a repetition of Sunday's anti-Negro brutality inflicted by Alabama authorities."

The resolution will be sent to President Lyndon B. Johnson, Senators George Murphy and Thomas H. Kuchel, Rep. Donald H. Clausen and Governor Wallace, according to Julian W. Mack, president.

World War I Armistice was signed at 11 a.m. on Nov. 11, 1918.

Underground Utilities Ordinance Is Backed

The Novato Planning Commission last night recommended that the city council go ahead with its ordinance requiring underground utilities in all new subdivisions.

The commission heard only one speaker, Carl S. Brown of the Associated Homebuilders. Brown said there are still many unknown factors in the costs of underground utilities. When these are known, he suggested, the utility companies could stand the cost themselves, and not the developer.

Some commissioners suggested the city consider how to achieve undergrounding of utilities in single-lot developments and in the older parts of the city.

The Novato Planning Commission Also:

1. Approved the tentative map of Bahia Properties Unit 1 of 397 lots on 255 acres east of Bugeia Lane and west of the Petaluma River.
2. Approved Sutter Development Co.'s grading plan for Sutter Terrace Units 1 of 12 acres south of Lynwood Park and east of South Novato Boulevard.
3. Recommended rezoning from duplex to planned commercial the former Grant School property at Grant Avenue and Highway 10, as asked by owner Douglas M. Christensen.
4. Approved a restaurant for the Novato Fair Shopping Center at Diablo Avenue and Highway 101, to be adjacent to the service station on Diablo Avenue.
5. Recommended that the city council restore multiple zoning on the Ralph T. McGrath property at Cherry and Armstrong streets. On recommendation of Robert Lagle, city planning director, the council changed the zoning from multiple to single family on Jan. 12.
6. Approved the master plan for apartment development of the four-acre Richard Connell property on South Novato Boulevard south of the Nave Shopping Center.
7. Granted Andrew B. Talbot a permit for a convalescent hospital on five and one-half acres at Hill and Indian Valley roads.
8. Granted J. and E. Builders Inc. architectural approval for a 68-unit apartment house near Diablo Avenue and Center Road.
9. Approved the establishment of a dental laboratory in the garage of Terry A. Bonner at 16 Dusel Court.
10. Approved a lot split by Paul Nelson at Ignacio Boulevard and Fairway Drive.

Driver Charged In Bayshore Freeway Death

REDWOOD CITY (AP) — Police charged a motorist with felony drunk - driving and manslaughter today after a 35-year-old man was flung 90 feet in the air and killed on the Bayshore Freeway at Hillsdale.

Spencer Lewis, 35, a mechanic from the San Jose area, was standing near his car, out of gas, waiting for a tow truck.

Highway Patrolman Leonard Vance said Robert Lagarrigue, 32, of San Bruno, a newspaper circulation driver, denied his station wagon struck Lewis. Vance said there was blood on the hood of Lagarrigue's car and its front light was smashed. He was arrested in Belmont.

Vance estimated that the car which struck Lewis was going about 70 miles an hour. Lewis formerly lived in East Palo Alto.

Lagarrigue was booked at the San Mateo County Jail.

Benicia was named in honor of Francisca Benicia, wife of Gen. Mariano G. Vallejo.

South Bay Bridge Study Is Sought

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Legislation was introduced yesterday directing the state department of public works to make emergency studies to find the most feasible site for a new crossing of South San Francisco Bay.

The bill by Sen. J. Eugene McAteer, D-San Francisco, requires a report no later than Feb. 1, 1966, on the controversial matter.

Small Subdivision Law Gets Support In Marin

The proposed Marin County small subdivision ordinance won support of the board of the Marin Federation of Improvement Clubs last night.

The board called the ordinance a "decided improvement over the existing ordinance" but felt some provision should be made for notification of property owners adjacent to proposed small subdivisions.

The federation will voice its views in a letter to the county board of supervisors and at hearings on the ordinance, if more are held, Chairman Jacques Nadler said.

County Planning Commissioner Hugh Dougherty gave a rundown on the ordinance, which would require that all subdivisions into two or three lots of a parcel of 10 acres or less be submitted to the planning commission for approval.

Chairman Nadler proposed that the federation study ways to ease the tax burden on older citizens who have lived in the same house for a long time and are faced with rising tax rates when they retire. He suggested taxes might be frozen when a homeowner reached 65 and a lien put on the property for any increase from then until the death of the owner or sale of the property.

Two-Man Space Shot Plans Moving Ahead

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — The United States is moving ahead with plans to rocket Gemini astronauts Virgil I. Grissom and John W. Young into orbit in two weeks.

Their two-seater spaceship and its Titan-2 rocket passed a major test yesterday that included a seven-hour countdown which stopped one minute short of blastoff.

Window Broken

Rose Brown San told Rafael police someone broke a window at Rose Brown Shop, 536 Third Street, yesterday.

Trustees Delay Unity Action

Trustees of Sausalito School District last night discussed unification of the Tamalpais Union High School District to be voted upon April 20 but took no stand since one trustee, Mrs. Juanita Cobb, was absent.

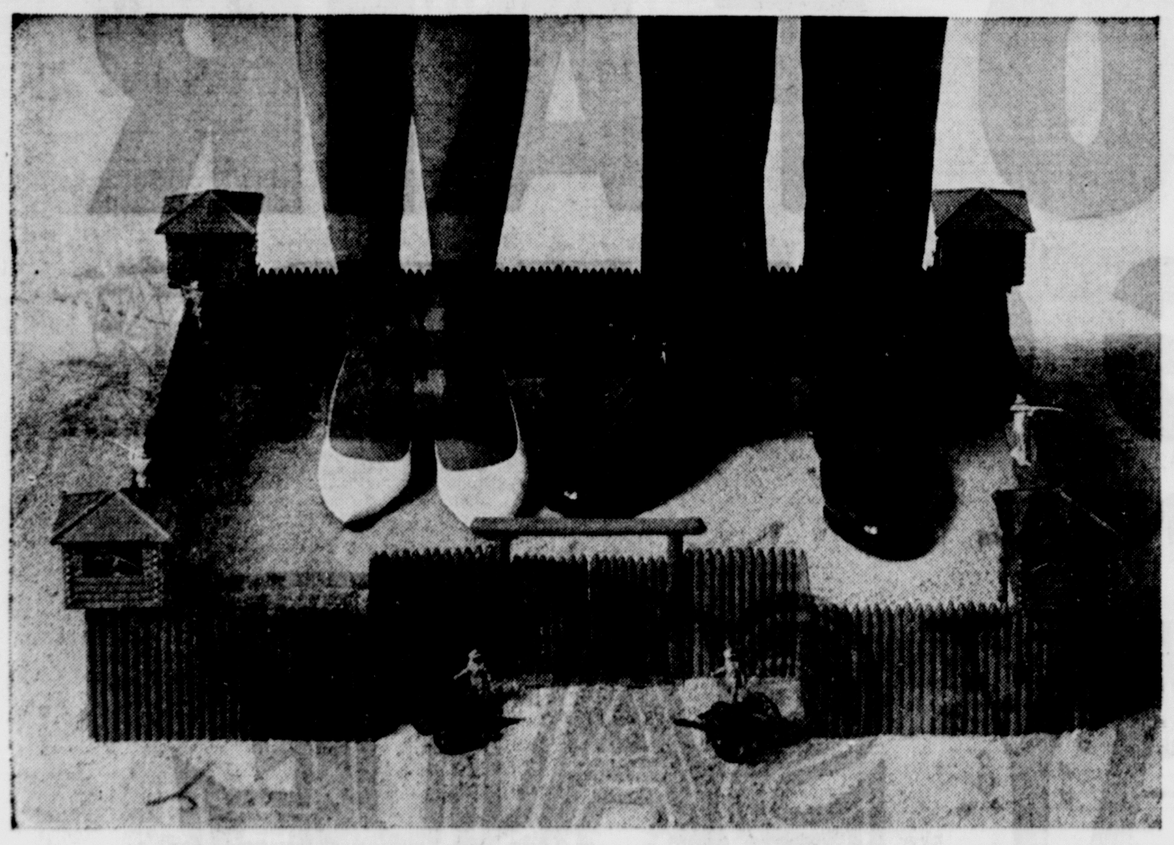

The board was divided on unification prior to a previous election which failed.

Trustees agreed to hire an addition teacher, Mrs. Robin Barnett of Tiburon, to teach sixth grade at Richardson Bay School in the morning and kindergarten at Manzanita School in the afternoon.

Foreign Language Program On List

The Dixie School District board will hear a report on the district's foreign language program from Manuel Guerra, Foreign language consultant, at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the district office, 35 Trellis Drive, San Rafael.

Gerhard Lust, physical education teacher at Vallecito School, will report on the physicial education tests conducted last fall.

YOU'RE ON SAFE GROUND
When You Specify T. I. Title Protection

When you buy property, whether it's a home site or a high-rise apartment, you want to be sure that your investment is well protected. A stockade won't do it. But a title insurance policy from T.I. will. Should anyone make a claim against the title to your property, T.I. assures you the finest title protection available. You know you're on safe ground.

There are good reasons why most property buyers, real estate brokers, builders, developers and lending institutions choose T.I. over other title companies. For one thing, they know T.I. has America's largest and best-trained staff of title specialists—a team that knows California real estate from the ground up. They know that T.I. has the finest title facilities in the industry. And that T.I.'s experience dates all the way back to 1893.

They know, too, that T.I. (and only T.I.) has complete and up-to-date land records available in 41 California counties, plus fast service statewide with just one phone call.

Most important, they know Title Insurance and Trust Company's matchless reputation for fast, dependable and impartial title service. So why don't you do as the real estate experts do? Specify T.I., the number one brand of title protection. You can be sure you're on safe ground.

Gas, Electric Franchises Introduced For Tiburon

The Tiburon City Council last night introduced an ordinance granting gas and electric franchises to Pacific Gas and Electric Co. with understanding that the company will place some existing and nearly all future lines underground.

The council is expected to pass the ordinance at its March 23 meeting at Del Mar School, along with an ordinance setting up garbage collection franchise rules.

Mill Valley Refuse Service is expected to be the only company bidding to collect garbage within the city. The company now collects under a Tiburon Sanitary District franchise. The district is expected to turn over control within its area to the city.

Increased garbage collection rates, to match those in surrounding areas, doubtless would be included in the franchise, City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose reported. But San Rafael attorney Albert Bianchi, speaking for the collection service, denied any plan to ask for higher rates.

The rate now is $1.75 a month for collection from one can in flat areas, $2.25 monthly for hilly areas. Rose predicted a rise of 25 cents a month in each case.

The utility franchises will give the city 1 per cent of the gross receipts from sale of gas and electricity within the city, expected to total $3,879 next year.

Councilmen Leo Souza and John S. Hoffmire Jr. reported on negotiations with the company which resulted in promises that all utilities in the commercial area on Tiburon Boulevard and Main Street would be replaced with underground utilities within 10 years, at the expense of the company.

The council is expected to enact an ordinance requiring that all utilities be placed underground in new subdivisions.

The Tiburon City Council also:

1. Postponed to its April 12 meeting discussion of the Belvedere Tennis Club lights, at request of the Hawthorne Terrace Property Owners Assn.

2. Set the next meeting for 8 p.m. March 23 at Del Mar School, so that councilmen who wished could attend a meeting of the Local Agency Formation Commission at 7:30 p.m. March 22 (the regular meeting date) at the Civic Center. The fate of Alto incorporation moves may be decided there.

3. Named Councilmen Anne L. Ellinwood and Leo Souza to the budget committee.

4. Approved a report from City Manager Rose saying no further ordinance need be enacted to control tideland fill and development as present city zoning and use permit ordinances give adequate control.

5. Approved leasing of the portion of Oyster Canal within the city limits to the Audubon Society.

6. Agreed to consider a citizen complaint of noise from a business on Main Street at the March 23 meeting.

7. Heard that negotiations are under way to transfer two small points of Angel Island now within the City and County of San Francisco to the City of Tiburon to round out city boundaries.

Auto Parts Yard Bid Is Rejected

Holtzinger Brothers' request for permission to open an auto parts yard at the end of Talley's Alley, the site of its former dump operations, was unanimously turned down last night by the Corte Madera Planning Commission.

The public hearing saw only two persons speak against the use, but commissioners ruled the wrecking yard would require an ordinance change.

The commission quickly approved the design of the Reed School District's proposed addition to Granada School.

Winifred Baker's Group To Perform

The Winifred Baker Chorale will perform Franz Schubert's German Mass in F Major at the California Palace of the Legion of Honor at 3 p.m. Sunday.

The Madrigal Singers of the Dominican College of San Rafael also conducted by Winfred Baker, will sing Elizabethan madrigals and contemporary folk songs on the same program.

Protests On Apartments Delayed

About 20 Fairfax residents went to last night's city council meeting prepared to protest a plan for an apartment development in Farifax's west end but were frustrated when the council continued the hearing of the plan for one week.

The council felt that it shouldn't hear the plan until it has appointed a replacement for Cornelis Van Vliet who resigned Feb. 17 from the council. Councilmen also wanted to wait until the new city administrator, David J. Sumbardo, is present.

The replacement appointment was postponed until an adjourned meeting next Monday at 8 p.m. in the Fairfax Women's Clubhouse. The new city administrator, David J. Sumbardo, is due to start work that day.

Jerry Schuman of 46 Westbrae Drive got his protest in anyway. "We didn't come here (to Fairfax) to be surrounded by apartments," he said.

Farr and Associates of San Rafael were turned down 6-0 by the city planning commission in their request for a planned unit development zone on the 9.8 acres. The Farr plans were submitted with the rezoning application. The area is presently zoned single family residential. The plans called for several apartment buildings containing a total of 196 units.

Ice Rink, Slot Car Race Track On List

Plans for an ice rink and a slot car race track will be before the Larkspur Planning Commission at 8 p.m. today at the city hall.

J. B. Rice has asked for a permit to open an ice skating rink at East Ward Street and Rice Lane, near the city hall. Attilio Malatesta seeks approval to open a hobby shop with the race track as a major feature at 484 Magnolia Avenue.

Two Arraigned

SALINAS (AP) — Two Salinas men charged with kidnaping two highway patrolmen have been ordered to appear tomorrow for preliminary court hearings. Raymond E. Johnson, 23, and Larry Wayne Williams, 20, were arraigned yesterday before Municipal Judge William Stewart.

Fairfax Increased Lot Size, Frontage Rules Are Urged

Increased lot size and frontage requirements in all zones were recommended to the Fairfax City Council last night by the city planning commission.

The commission wants these changes in the city's zoning ordinance, outlined by its chairman, Dan M. Miller:

1. Single family residential (R-1 zone) minimum lots of 6,500 square feet. Present requirement is 5,000 square feet.

2. Two-family residential (R-2 zone) minimum lots of 7,500 square feet. Present requirement is 6,000.

3. Apartment (R-3 zone) density requirement of 1,750 square feet per residential unit. Present requirement is 1,500 square feet.

4. Minimum frontage of 60 feet per lot required in all zones. The present frontage requirement is 50 feet.

Miller said the new requirements should not apply to existing lots but to all new subdivisions both within the city and outside it.

City Atty. Wallace S. Myers said he seriously doubted whether the city could pass laws affecting lands outside its boundaries. He also said it would be better to create new zones than to revise the requirements for existing ones.

The council asked Myers to sit down with the planning commission to work out any revisions in the proposal that may be necessary.

Mayor Frank L. Lawrence named Councilmen Peter R. Arrigoni and George A. Pagni to study the planning commission's proposals and make recommendations to the council.

The Fairfax City Council Also:

1. Asked City Engineer Richard J. Nelson to meet with the planning commission to work out details of tightened requirements for new subdivision map submissions and encroachment and variance applications. The commission wants contour maps with lot split applications and plot plans with applications for encroachments and variances.

2. Asked Meyers to meet with the planning commission on a proposed requirement that variances and other waivers of zoning requirements be acted upon within a certain time limit.

3. Appointed Albert S. Re of 240 Marinda Drive to a vacancy on the parks and recreation commission, and reappointed Stanley W. Little and Frank J. Egger Jr. to that commission.

4. Appointed former Mayor Camille P. Remy of 50 Cypress Drive and former Councilman Freeman D. Blake of 46 Creek Road to the board of review.

6. Approved Mayor Lawrence's appointment of Nyal Worsham to head a program to choose a Fairfax senior citizen for 1965. The mayor proclaimed May as Senior Citizen month in Fairfax.

6. Agreed that a letter should be sent to Fairfax Civil Defense leader Gordon Adams, confirming that his job is not in jeopardy. The new city administrator ordinance names the city administrator as civil defense director, Adams noted in a letter to the council.

7. Asked attorney Myers to draw up a resolution commending retired City Clerk Alice Leonesio on her 24 years of service to the city.

8. Authorized purchase of a new electric typewriter not to exceed $500 in cost.

9. Referred to the parks and recreation commission a request for $400 from the Fairfax Little League for a part-time handyman. The council granted the Little League permission to hang advertising signs on the ball park fence and waived permit requirements for concessions at Little League games.

10. Authorized City Clerk Frances Lestanguet to write the owner of a vacant lot on Dominga Avenue between Sherman Street and Napa Avenue that the city would clear the lot and charge the cost to the owner if he did not clear it within 15 days.

11. Approved a proposal by Fairfax Reporter editor Peter Edwards that the council take a coffee break at each meeting. Mayor Lawrence was reluctant, pointing out that last night's meeting lasted past midnight without a coffee break.

Meeting Postponed For Drainage Report

Meeting of the Marin County Soil Conservation District Board, scheduled for yesterday, was postponed pending a report from George S. Nolte Consulting Civil Engineers, on Tomales Bay drainage.

President Waldo Giacomini said the report should be ready in a week or 10 days. When it is, a board meeting will be called, he said.

Incomes Reviewed

The Larkspur School District board last night reviewed income items as they would be affected next year by the upcoming unification vote and also discussed fixed expense items in a short study session on the 1965-66 budget.

Lease Plan For Club Outlined

Details of the modified lease governing use of the city-owned Fairfax Women's Club were hammered out at last night's Fairfax City Council meeting.

The women's club will have free use of the clubhouse on the first and third Tuesday of each month, plus three days and three nights each year for special functions.

The club has priority over other groups if it submits its request for use 60 days in advance.

In return for this, the club relinguishes exclusive rights to the kitchen.

The club's attorney, E. Warren McGuire, told the council the club had approved a lease with five days and five nights for special use and 30 days notice, but he felt the women would accept the council's plan.

Expulsions Now Rare

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Problem children in California high schools these days are being suspended rather than expelled, an Assembly Education Committee shows.

The report released yesterday noted that three years ago, the legislature decided to allow local officials to impose long-term suspensions in place of booting out students giving trouble.

Now, it noted, expulsions are rare, with administrators turning to suspensions. In the past three years, only 175 high school students were flatly expelled.

San Rafael Man Gets Jail In Forgery

A 60-day county jail sentence was meted out to Michael A. McNinch, 30, by Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court yesterday for forgery.

McNinch, of 737 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, forged $147.86 and $145.26 checks Oct. 9 with intent to defraud the Cellars, 534 Third Street, San Rafael.

Hub Ranch Due Study As Rec Site

Still seeking a place for teenage activities, the San Anselmo Park and Recreation Commission last night agreed to take a new look at the Sorich Ranch.

About a year ago the commission considered using the former dairy barn on the city-owned ranch property as a community center, but dropped the idea as it was felt renovation would be more expensive than building a new structure.

Last night San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce president William S. Trewhella appeared to request reconsideration. He suggested volunteer labor might be found to cut costs.

A committee of recreation director Andrew J. Snyder Jr., Trewhella and Max S. Martin, representing the Lions Club, was named to check the building again.

Snyder, who was attending his first meeting of the commission since he started work in mid-February, was also asked to study proposed development of a small park at San Anselmo and Forrest avenues.

The commission agreed to work more closely with the Fairfax Park and Recreation Commission on joint problems, after hearing a call for cooperation from Leonard L. Wilgenbusch of the Fairfax commission.

Public Agencies Own Half State

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Almost half of California's land is owned by public agencies, according to a report by the Senate Fact Finding Committee on Natural Resources.

The state contains 100,206,720 acres of land area, of which 48.87 per cent is government owned. The federal government owns 92.05 per cent, or 45,076,382 acres, and the state owns 3.99 per cent, or 1,953,456.

Chairman Fred S. Farr, D-Monterey, said yesterday the remaining 1,938,852 acres of publicly owned property is in land holdings by counties, cities, school districts and special purpose districts. "It should be noted," said Farr, "that land ownership by the state . . . has actually decreased during the last 10 years."

Surgery Due In Car Crash

Janice Lee Garretson, 18, of 102 Twelveoak Road, San Rafael, was scheduled to undergo surgery today for injuries suffered in a traffic accident Sunday.

She was in fair condition in the Marin General Hospital intensive care unit.

Miss Garretson was one of two persons hurt when a car hit a tree on Lucas Valley Road near Marinwood.

Worker Injured In 4-Floor Fall

A San Anselmo construction worker fell four floors down an elevator shaft yesterday afternoon in San Francisco — and was in satisfactory condition today at Franklin Hospital there.

Reginald Solomon, 39, of 600 Red Hill Avenue, and a fellow worker, William Surls of San Francisco, were on the third floor of an apartment building under construction when they plunged down the shaft to the basement.

Solomon's physician reported today that his patient suffered no broken bones and was progressing well, recovering from cuts and bruises.

Opinion Is Sought On Ballet, Guitar Lessons

Trustees of the West Marin School District last night asked Supt. Howard Brose to get an opinion from the county council's office on the legality of ballet and guitar lessons offered after the regular class day in the schools.

The lessons, sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Assn., are commercial ventures, Brose explained.

Although parents are in favor of the programs, trustees want to make sure they are on sound legal ground.

Trustees voted to purchase a new school bus to replace one of the district's two vehicles by September. Both present buses are 12 years old. State aid will underwrite 78 per cent of the cost, Brose said.

Trustees formally approved a $500 annual raise for Brose, putting his salary at $10,500.

Trustees said they favored granting University of Pacific use of the West Marin School for summer lectures in connection with the university's marine biology station at Dillon Beach, but asked for more details on the lecture schedule prior to acting on the request.

Discussion of the school building program, preliminary budget and salary schedules for secretary and custodian were delayed until April 12 due to the avsence of trustee Gordon J.

Flood Control On Hub Agenda

Flood control on Corte Madera Creek will be the top item on the agenda of the San Anselmo city council meeting at 8 p.m. today at the city hall.

County Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen and county public works officials will be present to discuss the proposed formation of a flood control zone to include the creek's watershed.

City Administrator Douglas E. Flautt said he expects to present three names for the now-vacant post of city building inspector. Date for an interview with applicants may be set.

New Department Of Parks Set

Marin County's park and recreation division o fthe planning department will soon receive full departmental status.

The evolution from the planning and advisory to the action stage was informally agreed upon last night during a meeting of the board of supervisors with parks and recreation commission.

he supervisors requested a resolution creating the new department, be presented for discussion at a board meeting later this month.

San Rafael-Dixie School Merger Seems Sensible

Any movement to unify—school districts or other agencies—will run up against some resistance from each segment trying to maintain its autonomy.

So it is with the current proposal to unify the San Rafael and the Dixie elementary school districts.

But this proposed unification seems to make pretty good sense.

The area involved is relatively compact, and the communities from San Rafael to Lucas Valley have common interests. They are served by and support the same shopping areas—downtown San Rafael and Northgate.

The San Rafael High School District already includes Terra Linda High School, which is within the Dixie elementary district boundaries. The proposed unification would bring these various districts under one roof and under one school board.

Two main areas of concern are: (1) How the merger would affect the tax rates, and (2) representation on the new school board under a unified district.

It is fairly well established that the unification will mean higher taxes in San Rafael and lower taxes in the Dixie district.

San Rafael, which gets revenue from the shopping areas and light industry, should help support schools in the immediately adjacent residential communities in the Dixie district.

After all, the residents of the Dixie district are patrons of the San Rafael shopping areas.

From the point of view of taxes, Dixie residents should be happy with the merger, because their school tax rate will go down.

It is on the second point (representation on the school board) that Dixie shows most concern. The superintendent of Dixie has pointed out that the present San Rafael Board of Education might take over as board of the new unified district. And even if a new election were to be held, those from the present San Rafael school district would dominate the board because the bulk of the voters live in San Rafael proper.

But as several residents pointed out at a recent meeting on unification, Dixie residents also vote for San Rafael Board of Education members. They certainly would not be disfranchised, even if the San Rafael board took over the new unified district. In fact, one Dixie district resident is now serving on the San Rafael Board of Education.

We have worked with and seen the San Rafael Board of Education in action. We cannot conceive of any board member, be he elected from the San Rafael area or the Dixie area, so provincial as to deliberately discriminate against any one area of the unified family.

All in all, we believe the San Rafael-Dixie school unification is a logical one, unless we want to isolate each new community of homes and create a series of "impoverished" school districts out of each one.

Marin Should Belong To Eel River Group

Editor, Independent-Journal:

An excellent article appeared in the Independent-Journal of Feb. 23 with reference to the Eel River Assn. . . .

We who live in Marin County are vitally concerned in water. . . .

We realize that we must look for a steady source to insure the life of the County; the same situation is required in Sonoma. And it is vital that we must be sure of our source of abundant water before the Southern area has swallowed the entire water furnished from the Eel River.

The Eel River Assn. now embraces a group including the North Counties, and this group should certainly include Marin and Sonoma. As the article points out, "We cannot go it alone." . . .

We must act before the North Group has been swallowed up by the Los Angeles area. It would be well worth the water if by the payment of $5,000 thereby Marin saved the Eel River Assn. and included Marin and Sonoma.

High Praise Voiced For Newspaper Boy

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In the busy world of today, few people have the time and energy to express sincere thanks for services rendered above and beyond the call of duty.

The job of a paper boy is one of responsibility, care, and persistence; and yet it is the most thankless job a youngster is capable of holding. My paper boy, the finest lad I've yet to meet in my seventy-odd years, has shown me more care, courtesy and considerations than any other employee I have seen. I have NEVER missed an issue of the Journal, and it is delivered to me personally ever single day, despite my barking dog and high staircase.

My paper boy, Greg Wild, (San Anselmo) is more than responsible and careful, he is courteous, good-natured, and singularly polite! He is indeed a blessing to his customers and to you, his employers.

My thanks to you and especially to Greg for marvelous service. It has certainly been a pleasure.

Let Frouge Rezone Long Island Area

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I note with interest Mrs. Vera Schultz's crocodile tears on behalf of the downtrodden Marin taxpayer.

Speaking for one of them, I can say that I moved to this County four years, well aware of the tax rate and happy — yes, happy — to pay it as a condition to living here.

Let Mrs. Schultz put her argument more cogently: A group of eastern operators figure to make a bundle of money out of the Marincello deal and, for them, anything else is secondary.

This is the age of the referendum — we have them on everything; suppose that we should put this to a vote of the residents of the County (Who? Oh, them—forget it, they only live here). My guess is that the vote would be to send Frouge and his henchmen back to where they came from and let them rezone Long Island.

Communists Make Peace Impossible

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Today this land abounds with well meaning individuals who want PEACE! This is a noble goal and should be the aspiration of every thinking person on earth . . .before we can have peace in the world, the communist should give its enslaved people freedom. The captives of communism should not have mental agitation or anxiety. They should have spiritual content. Communists should keep the treaties they make with us. They should allow free and unfettered elections.

If this were so then there would be no communism and we would have peace! But, can you imagine the communists doing all this? I can't. So until then, peace is something I shall pray for and fight for if I must before I give up and naively believe that communism can be lived with. If you try to "peacefully" co-exist with cockroaches you will soon be overrun by them.

Violence Denied As Birch Society Aim

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Mr. Heller recently wrote concerning the speeches by the representative of the John Birch Society and the Communist Party that the John Birch Society "also advocated the violent overthrow of the government by force and violence." It seems Mr. Heller confused the two speakers or perhaps failed to attend the John Birch speech.

I would like to refer Mr. Heller to the investigation of the John Birch Society by the California Senate Factfinding Subcommittee on Un-American Activities, 1963, which in part revealed the following information:

"The attack against the John Birch Society commenced with an article in the "People's World," California Communist paper in February 1961.

"We have not found the society to be either a secret or fascist organization.

"We believe that the reason the John Birch Society has attracted so many members is that it simply appeared to them to be the most effective, indeed the only, organization through which they could join in a national movement to learn the truth about the communist menace and then take some positive concerted action to prevent its spread."

This hardly sounds like an organization bent on the violent overthrow of our government. The Communists spend thousands each year on a smear-fear campaign against the Birchers. It looks like Mr. Heller for one has been taken in by it.

Foreign Aid Bill Squabble Will Probably Come To Naught Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — Do you understand foreign aid well? Sen. J. W. Fulbright doubts it. Out of the doubt comes a struggle. And out of the struggle will probably come no change at all.

The United States has provided at least $105 billion in foreign aid, economic and military, since World War II. There have always been screams about it.

Gleeful hatchetmen in Congress have built reputations as economizers at the expense of foreign aid, yearly leading the fight to chop hundreds of millions off the program one president after another asked for.

There have been soul-searchings and disputes over whether the whole business should be scrapped. But this year the program is up against one of its oddest predicaments.

The two most powerful men in Congress in foreign affairs —Fulbright of Arkansas and Rep. Thomas E. Morgan of Pennsylvania, both Democrats —are split over whether the program should be split.

Don't get them wrong. They are both solidly for foreign aid. They just disagree on how to distribute it.

This year, like other presidents before him, President Johnson handed Congress his $3.8-billion foreign aid program in one big bundle, with economic aid and military assistance all bunched together under a single tent.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate's Foreign Relations Committee, says now as he did last year that the program should be split into two basic programs: One, military assistance, the other, economic help.

No, says Morgan, chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, taking the same position now as he did last year.

Fulbright has called the foreign aid program a "garbage can" for all kinds of amendments which Congress tacks on but which "have nothing whatever to do with foreign aid." He gave some of his reasons in a Senate speech Thursday.

"When we call the roll on final passage, how is a senator or anybody else to know what he is voting for or what he is voting against?"

Fulbright feels so strongly about it he won't lead the fight for the bill in the Senate, a task that usually falls to the chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee.

Morgan argues that if foreign aid were split, thus letting Congress vote on military and economic aid separately, "Economic aid would suffer." He says "everybody is for military assistance, but the economic program has few friends in Congress. . . .

He concedes changes are coming, even to phasing out the program completely. But he didn't say when, and it isn't likely soon, this year or next. Even though other members of Congress are split on the split, there seems to be no intense feeling generally.

The Johnson administration, not wanting to be ambushed by either side, is saying little. It apparently listened to Fulbright's argument and began to prepare this year's program with the senator's position in mind.

Then it rewrote it the old way when Morgan objected. Since Fulbright is simply stating a position, and not conducting a vendetta, the program should get through this year in the same form as in bygone years.

Russ Aid To Cyprus Like Cuban Buildup

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—While world attention is nervously focused on the ominously spreading war in Viet Nam, Russia is pulling off another menacing military build-up on strife-seething Cyprus—strategically located on the southern flank of NATO.

UNNOTICED LAST week, nine Soviet Komar class PT boats arrived at Cyprus from Alexandria, principal Egyptian naval base.

The powerful Komars, with a speed of around 40 knots and equipped with both torpedoes and missiles capable of being armed with nuclear warheads, were manned by Greek Cypriots and Russian "technicians." The former were trained in Alexandria, where the PT boats were shipped for delivery to Soviet-leaning Archbishop Makarios.

As in the case of the rebellion-torn Congo, Gamal Nasser is acting as the Kremlin's funnel for the sinister weapons build-up on Cyprus.

Greek Cypriot armed forces now total more than 20,000. Soviet weapons are arriving regularly, principally at Limassol, a port from which the so-called United Nations peacekeeping force is barred by Makarios. Also, a number of Russion "technicians" are on the island and others reportedly en route—as military instructors and "advisers."

IN CUBA such "advisers" man anti-aircraft guns and rockets.

A Soviet KGB (secret police) official is definitely known to be a member of the Cypriot ruler's staff.

In their trip across the Mediterranean to Cyprus, the nine Komars were kept under surveillance by units of the Sixth U. S. Fleet; no move was made to intercept them.

This was strongly favored in Pentagon quarters, but vetoed by President Lyndon B. Johnson on the advice of McGeorge Bundy, special White House foreign affairs assistant.

According to intelligence, the immediate objective of these Soviet-Cypriot disruptive actions is to "open a second front" against the U.S. embroilment in Viet Nam.

At a White House conference President Johnson told a group of congressmen:

"THERE IS A LOT of talk about negotiating. But I can tell you there are absolutely no indications from Moscow, Peking or Hanoi that they want to negotiate on anything less than our surrender. That is something we will never do."

There is one group of Indonesians who will think twice before again sounding off to an American about Russian MIG fighters.

Sen. Joseph Montoya, D-N. M., gave them a lesson they are not apt to forget for some time.

THE INCIDENT occurred in Burma, after he and the Indonesians debarked from a plane. Just then some U. S. fighter planes took off, and one Indonesian remarked disparagingly, "We have much better MIGs than those."

"That's debatable," retorted Montoya. "But one thing isn't debatable. You can't eat the MIGs you got from Russia, but you sure are eating the surplus food we have been supplying your people and thus keeping starvation from your door. Your country would be in a bad way if it weren't for the food we have been pouring in there."

THE STARTLED Indonesians stared for a moment, then stalked off as the other passengers laughed derisively.

Hear that saucy Jay? Note that extra edge of exuberance? He's happy. It's spring and the birds like it.

See that tiny, graceful Hummingbird? He is carrying on his courting dance, zooming up and down in front of his enthralled mate. He goes so fast we can scarcely see him, then when he puts on his brakes by spreading his tail, it causes a screeching noise. He's having the time of his life, living dangerously.

The Brown Towhee struts around, sounding like three baby chicks—peep, peep, peep. The Nuthatch runs down a limb, upsidedown. A few of the happy birds of spring in Marin.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

New Blood Needed To Bolster State Civil Service Hierarchy

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—California's "little Hoover" commission, a group studying the administrative problems of government in this state, says a critical shortage of managerial manpower in the executive branch of state government looms, despite the fact it has found the senior management group is among the most competent in the 50 states.

In a report submitted to Gov. Edmund G. Brown, the Senate and the Assembly, the commission attributes the reason to several causes, the first of which is the most common, not high enough pay.

HIGHEST SALARIES in California state government, the report says, compare poorly with private industry, the federal government, the State of New York, and even certain municipal governments.

"For example," the report says, "New York state department heads receive $29,975 per year. The limit in California is $23,500."

The study on management, made at a cost of $90,000 from a special appropriation with the assistance of a private firm in San Francisco, covers approximately 1,500 present management directors, out of which 1,300 are civil service employees and the rest exempt positions.

THE COMMISSION recommends that the state conduct open examinations for all management vacancies, with persons from outside government eligible to compete on even terms.

It also recommends that temporary appointments to civil service positions be made from outside the service pending examination, as well as permanent appointment by department directors of individuals with unique skills and experience from outside state service with subsequent ratification by the personnel board.

Another recommendation seeks the abolition of the veterans preference system, which it said "often excludes the most qualified persons."

THE REPORT LEADS to the belief, which has been argued for a good many years by some legislators, that the civil service system is working to build up a hierarchy among state employees who start in as clerks. Obviously, these people should have an opportunity to advance, but at the same time, it is contended that the system, which involves more than 150,000 employees, needs infusion of new blood, new experience, and new methods to maintain the administration of state government at modern levels.

The exclusion of citizens from taking advanced examinations, unless those citizens happen already to be working for government, marks real discrimination against a portion of the population, and this discrimination, if the commission's report is taken into consideration, is depriving the state of what might be some of its best managerial potential.

AWARE OF the fact that the woods would be full of a new crop of inexperienced hunters, an old-timer prepared for the opening of the deer hunting season by making himself a suit of awning cloth with glaring alternate stripes of black and white. Thus equipped, he sallied forth confidetnly on the first day and was promptly winged by a novice.

AT THE HOSPITAL, the doctors shouted at the quaking novice, "Anybody could see those stripes a mile away. How, from a distance of a hundred yards, could you possibly mistake this poor man for a deer?"

"I didn't," stammered the novice. "I mistook him for a zebra."

Novato Has Almost Forgotten It's Small, Hilltop Park Site

AFTER THE MEETING last Wednesday night at which a Novato Community Foundation was formed, several discussions about parks came up out in the hall. The foundation is designed to raise funds or seek land donations for parks in Novato.

In one of these discussions, it was pointed out that there was a dedicated park within the city limits, in fact, near City Hall.

Our search the next day located an oval shaped piece of property at the end of Hayden Drive. It was dedicated as Mahlstedt Park somewhere around 1909. Without taking a survey crew out to measure it exactly, it appears to be slightly less than three quarters of an acre.

Members of the Novato planning staff knew that it was there, but Ed Adams, director of parks and recreation, did not. I toured the site with Ed Adams. It is on top of the hill above Hilltop Restaurant. It commands a striking view of the city below and out onto San Pablo Bay. Some gnarled old trees spread their shade on the grassy slope below.

Adams said that it would be an ideal spot for some benches so old folks could sit and look out at the view and a good place for some swings and slides for the children to play on.

WE'LL HAVE TO make a study of it on staff level to see how it can be developed," said Ed, who is now up to his ears getting a clean up job finished on Novato's second-park — the Pioneer Memorial Cemetery.

The Novato Garden Club, which has done such a remarkable job of planting the Liquid-amber trees on Grant Avenue, is looking for another project to help beautify the city.

There is a small piece of land adjoining the northeast corner of Seventh Street and Novato Boulevard, in the public right of way. But it is nothing but bare ground. This could easily be planted and made a small spot of beauty if someone wanted to do it.

Bess Garatti of the garden club said that the club had the plants if they could get permission to landscape it.

"I could be made a thing of beauty, just a spot so people could see what could be done," she said.

LAST SUNDAY, Mrs. Al Bowman planted ivy at the base of some of the trees on Grant Aveneu. Last year several merchants vied to see who could have the best flowers growing in the trees' planters.

The parks and r ecreation commission is studying request from the teen-agers for a drop-in teen canteen, similar to the one in the high school cafeteria during the past two summers.

However, the cafeteria is not available during the school year, so there is a problem of some place to put such a canteen.

Helen Greving, chairman of the commission, wants anyone having or knowing of some place where the teen-agers could drop in and hold dances, to let her know.

"Even if it's an old barn, we could hold barn dances," she said.

MORRIE RYSKIND

Old Writers, Modern Newsmen Both Distort Facts Of History

NOT LONG AGO I paid tribute to John Barrymore's unforgettable portrayal of Richard III, and Mrs. Vera M. Bailiff reproves me gently for downgrading the monarch as a "murderous king."

"I have learned," she writes, "to be skeptical of many things previously accepted as undisputed fact. . . . I suggest you read 'The Daughter of Time' by Josephine Tey. Though fictional, it is based on a great deal of research which indicates that the official historian of Richard III was one of his worst enemies and that the small princes were never murdered by Richard at all."

Now that may well be, but I was speaking of the king as Shakespeare—and Barrymore—drew him, and in the play he lusted after other men's wives and was clearly responsible for the assassination of Edward V and his brother Richard. So "murderous" is hardly an unfair adjective.

I've not read the Tey volume, but I'm aware scholars agree Richard had a bad press. "Britannica" says, "Richard was not the villain his enemies depicted. He had good qualities, both as a man and as a ruler, and showed a sound judgment of popular needs. Still it is impossible to acquit him of the crime. . . . There seems to be no reasonable doubt that his nephews were murdered by their uncle's orders.

"HE WAS A TYPICAL man in an age of strange contradictions, of culture combined with cruelty, and of an emotional temper capable of high ends, though unscrupulous of means."

So I plead not guilty. Yet, in her doubts of historical reporting, Mrs. B. has a point, and if she'll turn it around and aim it at the right target, I'll gladly join her. For I, too, have inveighed—futilely, alas—against the new school of interpretive reporting in our great daily papers which would rather interpret the facts than report them. And it is these stories on which the historians of the future must inevitably rely.

TV IS EVEN more dangerous, for no glib broadcaster has to face a public "Letter to the Editor" written in dissent. Recently, discussing Al Smith, one of TV's "historians" casually noted he had been defeated because he was Catholic. Which is pure hogwash. I voted for Al, and in 1928, when the electorate was as overwhelmingly Republican as it is Democratic today, no Democrat could have won.

CAME THE MARKET collapse, and in 1932 no Republican—Abe Lincoln nor Teddy Roosevelt — could have won. We put the blame on Mr. Hoover for the world-wide depression — and for the next seven elections Democrats were still running against a villain who had set us all to selling apples for his own selfish interests. When Charlie Michelson, head of the Bourbon hatchetmen, was through, there wasn't a shred of decency left on the effigy of Mr. Hoover.

EVEN MR. TRUMAN, who called on Mr. Hoover to head two important commissions during the Truman administration, was warning against another "Hoover depression" as late as 1956. Don't argue this, because I heard him. And only last week a writer "reminded" me that Hoover's money was made by exploiting cheap Chinese labor.

Happily, toward the end of Mr. Hoover's life, the tar and feathers had gone and the truer portrait of one of our genuinely great Americans began to emerge from the slime. We may even hope that the historians of the future will rely more on Eugene Lyons' excellent "The Herbert Hoover Story"—written with love, to be sure, but with scholarly competence, too—than on the vitriolic attacks that appeared in the press for so many years.

OTHERWISE, history — and a play or two—may yet record that the nephews of Richard III were slain in the Tower by underpaid Chinese coolies at the instigation of Mr. Hoover.

NEW TV-APPLIANCE STORE FOR NOVATO

Construction was started this week by William H. McDevitt Co. on this new store in Novato for Young Brothers, San Francisco retail television and appliance firm. The building, designed by Karl Treffinger, will be constructed of concrete and glass and cover 20,000 square feet. It is the first unit of a shopping center planned for a four-acre site at Redwood Highway and Olive Avenue. Completion is expected in July.

Marin Retails Up 55 Per Cent

Retail sales in Marin County increased 55 per cent between 1958 and 1963, it was announced yesterday by the census bureau.

The county's 1,279 retail businesses reported $238.9 million dollars in sales in 1963, creating employment, exclusive of proprietors, for 7,277 persons and a yearly payroll of $29.1 million dollars.

Data gathered from all Marin County firms in the 1963 census of business were tabulated by the census bureau on electronic computers and typed at a speed of 10 lines per second, according to the department of commerce.

Volume of business in the county's food stores was reported at 68 million dollars, an increase of 43 per cent from 1958 when the last census was conducted.

In other retail business, eating and drinking businesses had sales of 20.9 million dollars; gasoline service stations had sales of 19.2 million dollars; auto dealers and related retail trade establishments had sales of 43.6 million dollars; general merchandise group stores reported sales of 18.4 million dollars, and lumber, building materials, hardware and farm equipment dealers had 16.3 million dollars worth of sales.

Rexall Buys Plastic Firm

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Rexall Drug & Chemical Co. has purchased Massachusetts Plastic Corp. of Ludlow, Mass., for an undisclosed price, it was announced here by Rexall president Justin Dart.

The plastics firm, which produces thermo-plastic food containers, will become a member of the Rexall Chemical Co. group, Dart said.

HEADS AUTO DEALERS—James C. Scripture, San Rafael Oldsmobile dealer, was elected president of the Northern California Motor Car Dealers Assn., at its 36th annual convention in San Francisco last week. He had previously served as treasurer, and also as president of the Marin County dealers' association.

Trading Active; Market Dips

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed irregularly lower today. Trading was fairly active.

A 4-point loss by Du Pont was depressing to the market averages. Also influential were losses exceeding a point by Westinghouse Electric and Union Carbide.

Xerox lost 2 and Jones & Laughlin 1 but IBM was a 5-point gainer.

Zenith rose more than a point.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.3 million shares compared with 5.27 million yesterday.

Here was the picture near the close:

A loss of more than 2 by Du Pont helped depress the averages.

Also off about a point were such wheelhorses as Standard Oil (New Jersey), Union Carbide and Westinghouse Electric.

Mead Corp., thanks to a single block of 100,000 shares, shaped up as the volume leader, with a 1-point gain. Loral was actively traded and a fractional gainer.

Comsat was under selling pressure and down about a point in heavy trading. Thiokol, also was active and off about a point.

IBM advanced more than 5. Up about 2 were such issues as ACF Industries, American Broadcasting, Paramount and Perkin-Elmer.

Losses of a point or so were taken by Calgon General Mills and CBS.

Prices were mixed in heavy trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Curtis Board Chairman Quits

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Matthew J. Culligan has resigned as board chairman of the Curtis Publishing Co. The company, publisher of the Saturday Evening Post and other magazines, reported a 1964 loss of nearly $14 million.

Culligan, who joined Curtis as president and board chairman in July 1962, said his resignation is effective immediately but that he would continue to handle special projects, including development of broadcasting opportunities.

Culligan quit as president last October in the wake of a revolt by top editorial personnel on the firm's five magazines. John MacLean Clifford succeeded him.

Edisco Quarters Are Opened; Belfors Open Sample Shoppe

New quarters have been opened at North Woodland Avenue, San Rafael for a wholesale electronic products supply company known as Edisco, Inc.

This is the first branch of a 10-year old San Francisco firm and is under the joint management of Herbert W. Allison of San Rafael and A. T. Fadale of Corte Madera. Both were several years with the San Francisco office, and between them will cover Marin, Sonoma and Napa Counties.

Main lines are components for television, radio, stereo and hi-fi equipment—and antenna systems. Principal antenna line is Winegard, which manufacturers gold anodyzed products, corrosion resistant.

No retailing.

WOMEN'S WEAR merchandising team William and Kay Belfor of Marinwood reopen their Sample Shop at 943 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield tomorrow.

Their first store was on Grand Avenue, San Rafael where they remained for seven years—then two years ago they moved it to Union Street, San Francisco where it is still on operation. It seems they've been besieged with requests to return to Marin by loyal customers who have found commuting just a little too long.

DANTE'S COIFFURES is a new beauty salon opened at 1817 Fourth Street, San Rafael, next door to Dexter Rambler. "Dante" is Sam Lombardo of Terra Linda, formerly with the Style House in Northgate.

The salon maintains two operators and eventually is planned to have four. It is open Mondays through Fridays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Saturdays to 4 p.m. Evenings by appointment.

NEW MARKETING DIRECTOR for diodes and other electronic devices manufactured at the San Rafael plant of Fairchild Semiconductor is H. Ward Gebhardt, former marketing manager for Endevco Corp., Pasadena. His background also includes executive positions with Hoffman Electronics Corp. and General Electric Co.

Gebhardt Otto

JOHN OTTO of Mill Valley has been elected vice president and executive art director for the Wyman Co., San Francisco. He has been with the company for four years—and for the past two years senior art director. Previously he was art director with Foote, Cone and Belding.

SAN RAFAEL plastic manufacturer Kimball-Schmidt, Inc. had an especially good showing for the calendar recently ended, according to Klaus Schmidt, president. The company experienced a 33 per cent increase in sales and per-share earnings of $1.27 are highest in its 13-year history.

Schmidt attributes it to the development of nationwide sales facilities. The firm was a pioneer in the field of fiber glass fabrication and pressure molding—manufacturing water skis, billboard trim, paint brushes, trays and other fiber glass products.

GENERAL MOTORS, acting through Novato Chevrolet dealer T. R. Schuman, has presented a new Chevrolet V-8 engine to Novato High School for use in automotive shop instruction—along with 12 carburetors, a Delcotron with regulator and an assortment of special fixtures and tools. . . . According to California State Automobile Assn., one business in six in the United States is dependent on the manufacture, distribution, and servicing and use of motor vehicles.

REAL ESTATE CHUCKLE. Admonishment to agents showing a certain San Rafael home on Multiple Listing while the owner is away: "Do not touch parrot —nor use profanity in his presence!"

Tax Help For Good Children

(From the California Society of Certified Public Accountants.)

If a person is single and supports either his mother or father, tax relief exists for him in the form of lower tax rates. For example, if the son has $8,000 in taxable income, he'll pay $273 less in taxes per year.

To qualify, the son or daughter must provide over half the support of the parent and provide a place to live for the parent. The place provided to live can either be with the child or separate residence elsewhere.

However, to qualify the parent must have less than six hundred dollars of income, exclusive of social security payments.

Airline Record

LOS ANGELES — Alitalia Airlines set new traffic records for 1964, it has been announced. During the record year Alitalia transported 2,607,000 passengers, an increase of 10 per cent over the previous year. The number of passenger miles recorded on the carrier's worldwide network increased to 3,558,280,445 or 17 per cent over the previous year.

NCAA Western Regional Cage Tournament On Tap

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

The West had three of the nation's 10 top basketball teams this season and they will all be at Provo, Utah, for the Western Regional NCAA tournament this Friday.

Final UPI rankings put the UCLA Bruins in second place on the basis of their 24-2 season's record and sparkling 14-0 mark in Pacific Athletic Conference play.

Brigham Young, winner of the tough Western Athletic Conference, wound up in sixth place with a 21-5 mark and an 8-2 season's record.

The Cougars must face the Bruins in Friday's opener. Brigham Young will have the big home court advantage going for it, but is in trouble since center John Fairchild suffered a sprained ankle last Saturday night against New Mexico and has been on crutches the past two days. He is expected to see action Friday, but is sure to be way off his usual form.

The other game will match nationally 10th ranked San Francisco, 23-4 for the season and 13-1 in the West Coast Athletic Conference, and Oklahoma City. The Chiefs got into the field the hard way, with a 70-68 squeaker over Colorado State last night at Lubbock, Tex.

Charlie Hunter hit a jump shop with a second left on the clock to decide it.

Friday's winners clash Saturday and the survivor moves on to the national championships at Portland, Ore., the following week.

Regular season play ended last night with Washington dumping Idaho, 99-87. Idaho's Tom Moreland and Washington's Lynn Nance hit 26 points apiece. Washington wound up the season at 9-15 and Idaho at 6-19.

In other post-season tournaments, Seattle, Pacific, 22-6, will represent the West Coast at this weekend's NCAA college division tournament at Evansville, Ind.

And the West Coast is not faring so well at the 28th National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics small-school joust at Kansas City.

Don Hakala's 31 points went in vain as Linfield of Oregon fell before Oklahoma Baptist, 87-84. Central Washington was edged by Montana State, 63-61, although Jim Clifton of the losers topped all scorers with 24.

California Western sets sail in the 32-team competition today against High Point, N.C.

Meanwhile, final unofficial Pacific Athletic Conference scoring statistics showed that Oregon State's Jim Jarvis hit 320 points for a 22.9 average to edge all America Gail Goodrich of UCLA with 315 points and a 22.5 average.

Following the Bruins in the PAC standings were Stanford (9-5 and 15-8), USC (8-6 and 14-12) and Oregon State (7-7 and 16-10).

Ollie Johnson of USF dominated the West Coast Athletic Conference with 300 points and a 21.4 average. Soph sensations Keith Swagerty of University of Pacific (19.6) and Mike Gervasoni of Santa Clara (19.0) followed well behind.

Other teams in the WCAC with winning season's records included Santa Clara (9-5 and 14-12), San Jose State (9-5 and 14-10) and Pacific (8-6 and 13-12).

Evansville Goes After 4th Title

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP) The undefeated Evansville Purple Aces, wildly backed by hometown boosters, are overpowering favorites to capture an unprecedented fourth NCAA small college basketball title in the three-day tournament opening tomorrow.

The Aces, No. 1 all season in The Associated Press small college poll, boast a 26-0 season mark, including victories over Iowa, Notre Dame, Northwestern and Louisiana State. Their closest calls were a pair of one-point squeakers over third-ranked Southern Illinois.

SHOW DOWN

Southern Illinois, 18-5, is in the opposite bracket from the Aces in the quarter-final pairings and well could battle into a championship showdown with them. The semifinals are Thursday night and the title game Friday night.

Evansville won the crown last year with a 72-59 romp over Akron. The Aces also won in 1960 and 1959.

First round pairings (times EST):

2:30 p.m. — Akron, 21-6, vs. St. Michael's of Vermont, 20-5.

4:30 p.m. — North Dakota, 24-4, vs. Seattle Pacific, 22-6.

8: p.m.—Southern Illinois, 18-5, vs. Washington of St. Louis, 21-5.

10 p.m. — Evansville, 26-0, vs. Philadelphia Textile, 23-4.

The Aces' first foe, 10th-ranked Textile, is a high-scoring outfit, led by Charles McLaughlin. Evansville is paced by two 1964 all-tournament selections, Larry Humes and Jerry Sloan.

St. Michaels is making its fifth appearance in this tourney, which started in 1957.

RANGY TEAM

The North Dakota Sioux have a rangy team headed by versatile Paul Pederson and are on an 18-game winning streak.

Southern Illinois has good depth, with Joe Ramsey its star. Washington, defeated earlier in the season at Southern Illinois, has one of the meet's finest players in Wayne Williams.

Record attendance for the three-day tourney in the 13,000-seat Roberts Stadium appears assured. The high was reached last year when a total of 31,915 turned out, including 12,244 for the championship game.

Veteran Jack Wild, But Still Has His Old Steam

CASA GRANDE, Ariz. (AP)—A veteran and a rookie are drawing major attention at the spring training camp of the San Francisco Giants, namely Jack Sanford and Al Stanek.

Sanford, the burly right-hander, tries a comeback after being sidelined by an arm operation last July and he proved in his first outing yesterday that he can still fire a baseball albeit needing plenty of work to regain control.

Stanek, a southpaw, worked in the same intrasquad game and proved impressive with control and his change-of-pace. The Giants, having traded Billy O'Dell and apparently losing Masanori Murakami to Japanese baseball, need a competent left-hander.

The 21-year - old Stanek could be the answer. A bonus signee in 1962, the 6-foot hurler was on the Giants roster in 1963 but saw little service. Baseball rules that year called for clubs keeping some of their bonus players.

Last year Stanek toiled at Tacoma with a 13-12 record, the most victories for anyone on the club's staff in the Pacific Coast League. He led the league in strikeouts with 220 and allowed only 161 hits in 223 innings while pitching 11 complete games.

In yesterday's intrasquad game Stanek worked two innings, faced seven batters, allowed no hits, and struck out one. The only baserunner was safe on an error.

Stanek's change-of-pace got the comment from veteran pitching instructor Frank Shellenback, That's the best pitch in baseball if you can get it over."

Sanford hummed some of the 19 pitches he threw but several were high and wide. The lack of consistent control didn't seem to bother him, though, as he commented, "The main thing is that I'm throwing."

The right - hander underwent an arterial operation on his pitching arm in July to restore circulation. He was out the rest of the 1964 season but is counted on for starting duty this coming campaign.

During these early workouts, pitchers are permitted only 25 pitches. The quota will be increased as their arms strengthen.

Gaylord Perry pitched 1 2-3 innings and allowed only one hit during his 25 throws yesterday when the squads managed by Willie Mays and Ed Bailey battled to a 5-5 tie in 6½ frames. At the end of that time all the scheduled pitchers had worked so Franks called a halt.

Warriors Heading Toward A Record

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

This season's edition of the San Francisco Warriors seems doomed to become the all-time biggest losers in the history of the National Basketball Association.

That dubious distinction now belongs to the Chicago team of 1961-62, which compiled an 18-62 in its first year of existence.

The nucleus of that squad is now at Baltimore and it was the Bullets who pushed the Warriors closer to a new mark with a 111-102 win at San Francisco in last night's only NBA action.

That moved the Warriors to 15-59 for the year with two home games and four road games left on the schedule.

Bailey Howell and Kevin Loughery hit 29 and 26 points to lead Baltimore, while Connie Dierking filled in for center Nate Thurmond and hit 19 to top San Francisco.

Thurmond's sparkling play has been the Warriors' one bright spot this season, but he has been hampered by a back injury for the past month. He was able to play less than a half last night.

Bill Russell Credits His Teammates

BOSTON (AP) — Captain Bill Russell of the Boston Celtics says he owes his National Basketball Association Player of the Year award to his teammates.

For the fourth time in five years and fifth time over-all Russell has been named the league's MVP by the votes of member athletes.

"It may sound corney," Russell said yesterday, but the simple truth of the matter is that I owe this award to my teammates. They have made this the best year I have ever had.

"I think that the two greatest things which have ever happened to me have been my wife, Rose, and coming to Boston and the Celtics.

"I appreciate this award. But more than that, I appreciate the people."

Russell has been named coach pro-tem for the games Wednesday night at Detroit and in Cincinnati Friday while Red Auerbach is on a college tournament talent scouting tour.

"I won't take it easy on Russell as coach," Bill said. "We'd like to set that 61-victory record. I think we will."

HANLEY

CASA GRANDE, Ariz. — Frank Shellenback is known in the Giant organization as "The Teacher." Shellenback was in semi-retirement in Boston when Herman Franks persuaded him to take charge of this year's staff of Giant pitchers.

"I am not in any way belittling our pitching coach Larry Jansen by inviting the teacher to take charge," said the rookie manager of the Giants. "I wouldn't have Larry as my coach if I didn't think he was a good one. But Shellenback is great. He taught Larry all he known about pitching."

Jansen isn't the only successful major league pitcher taught by Shellenback who has spent half a century in baseball. Shellenback signed his first professional baseball contract in 1916 with Los Angeles of the Pacific Coast League. The past couple of decades Shellenback directed all pitchers in the Giant farm system. Two years ago he began to train others for that job and went into semi-retirement, doing a spot of scouting for the Giants in Boston.

"I'm tickled to death that Shelly came to camp," said Franks. "With Shellenback and Jansen in charge of pitching, I have no spring worries about our staff. I know that in six weeks they will come up with something."

PRECISELY WHAT does Shellenback look for in a young pitcher? What does he tell a rookie? What Do's and Don'ts does he stress?

"Everyone has a natural delivery and none throws the same way," said Shellenback. "I have never changed a man in my life. I might add a little something here or a little something there but I do not believe in changing a man's natural delivery.

"THERE ARE many facets to the delivery and each one of them is important—the stride, follow through, timing and a number of other things.

"Most young pitchers have a tendency to hurry. They become too anxious. This throws them off stride. Naturally, we will slow down a youngster who is hurrying his pitch.

"We constantly are on the lookout for little things. A pitcher, for example, never should take his eye off the catcher during his windup. I know Fred Fitzsimmons used to turn his back to the plate and look at center field but he was a rare exception to the rule that a pitcher should keep his eye on the catcher.

"ANOTHER EXAMPLE of what we look for? A pitcher should follow through flat-footed on his free foot after the delivery, never on his heel which creates problems. Big problems usually grow from repetition of little mistakes. That's why we try to correct the little things as soon as we spot them."

Redwood's Frosh Coach Steps Down

Lyle Fisher, Redwood High School's unbeatable freshmen basketball coach, has decided to quit a winner.

Fisher, a math teacher who helps in the athletic department as assistant football coach and frosh cage mentor, announced his "retirement" as frosh basketball coach at an awards banquet last night honoring the varsity cage and wrestling teams at Redwood.

In five years at the helm of Redwood's frosh team, Fisher has guided his youngsters to five unofficial Marin Athletic League championships, quite an unbeatable record. He doesn't have the needed time to devote to coaching because of his teaching work load, he said last night. He will still remain an assistant football coach, he said.

Tom Bly, Charlies Davis and Don Detrick received captain blankets in award presentations to the varsity basketball team. Bob Green won the senior scholarship award.

Wally Sharpe and Vic Gengler won captain blankets for their roles on the Redwood varsity wrestling team. Sharpe also won the senior scholarship awards.

The banquet was sponsored by the Redwood Benchwarmers Club.

Marin Police Baseball Will Be Formed

Tryouts for the first Marin Police Athletic League baseball team will be held at 10 a.m., Saturday, at Richardson Bay School, Sausalito.

Eligible for the team are youngsters 12 through 14 years of age, or they may be 15 years old after April 1, said league president Herbert Smith, a Sausalito police officer and founder.

The team, when formed, will play in the San Francisco Police Athletic League, games to start April 10.

The Marin league was formed last October by eight law enforcement officers in Marin County. Its purpose is to provide a common meeting ground for peace officers and youth of Marin County in the area of sports and supervised activities. It is also to foster and encourage faith in American principles and the traditions of good sportsmanship, said Smith.

Nicklaus Slips Into Top Ten Golf Winners

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus is the only one of the Big Three in professional golf to get into the top ten PGA money-winners' list.

His $6,000 for second place in the Pensacola Open gave him a total of $8,075 and ninth place in the list, released yesterday. Arnold Palmer and Gary Player are not even in the top 25.

Doug Sanders, who won $10,000 at Pensacola by whipping Nicklaus in a playoff, is the leading money-winner with $16,332.78. He made it by playing in six tournaments and finishing in the top five twice.

Billy Casper is second with $15,557.50, and Bob Charles is third with $14,406.25.

Others in order are, Paul Harney, $12,000; Rod Funseth, $11,565; George Knudson, $10,825; Don January, $9,752; George Archer, $8,500 and Bert Yancey, $7,653.34.

Big Test Ahead For S.F. Seals

VICTORIA (AP)—Before next Monday, the San Francisco Seals should know whether they get a chance to defend their Lester Patrick Cup.

The fourth-place Seals play fifth-place Victoria tonight and the Maple Leafs are just one point back in the Western Hockey League race for the last playoff spot.

The Seals move on to first-place Portland tomorrow and then back to San Francisco for two more games against Victoria this weekend. Victories are needed because Victoria has played three less games than San Francisco.

A slight left shoulder separation to Paul Jackson may keep the defenseman out of action for one week to 10 days. But Seals Coach Bud Poile indicated a shortage of back line men could cause Jackson to return to the ice before then.

Golf Winner

Jack Hartnett and Dr. Von Christierson teamed up to win the best ball twosome match Sunday at the Mill Valley Golf Club. They had a 57 to win the tourney which attracted 22 twosomes.

Oregon State Chooses New Track Coach

He has been at Kansas only a year after turning out a succession of stellar high school teams from 1950 to 1963 at Caldwell, Emporia and Wichita, Kan. Two of the high school athletes he coached were Archie San Romani Jr., who as a University of Oregon miler turned in a time of 3:57.6, and Jim Ryun of Wichita, the first prep sub-four-minute miler.

Timmons will arrive April 19 and assist Bell through this season, then take charge.

Livie Is Named AllConference

Lynn Livie, former cage star at College of Marin and this year's leading scorer in the Far Western Conference for Sacramento State College, has been named to the all-conference team, it was announced today.

Livie joined Bill Jones of Chico, Everett Adams of San Francisco State, Napolean Montgomery of Nevada, Howard Foster of Hayward State and Russ Slater of Cal Aggies on the dream team.

YANKEE PROBLEM

Who's In Center?

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The New York Yankees are looking for a center fielder and their new leadoff hitter hopes to win the job during his 10-game trial. Win or lose, he won't have any trouble making the club.

Mickey Mantle seconded Manager Johnny Keane's proposal yesterday for a center field runoff with Roger Maris in the Yankees' first 20 exhibition games. Then Mickey explained why he'd like to return to the position he played for 13 years before quitting it late last season because of his battered knees.

"I think center field is easier to play," Mantle said. "There is more running but it is on a straight line. You just go as far as you can wherever the ball is hit. In right field, there is more quick stopping and that's what I don't like to have to do."

Keane, who has problems 19 other major league pilots would like to have, said he intends to play Mantle in center field for 10 games, then move him to right — with Maris switching to center.

"I want to see which way is best for the team," Keane said. "After 20 games, I believe I'll know, and the one who is in center after that time will be the center fielder."

Mantle will bat first and Maris second in exhibition games, Keane's idea being to give both sluggers more plate appearances and still rest them in the late innings.

While the Yankees were busy plotting spring strategems, the New York Mets were trying — unsuccessfully — to bring outfielder Joe Christopher into the fold. Christopher, a .300 hitter in 1964 and the first Met holdout since Marv Throneberry balked two years ago, met with club Vice President Johnny Murphy for four hours but stuck to his bid for a 100 per cent pay hike to $20,000.

There were optimistic reports from Pompano Beach, Fla., where Frank Howard and Willie Kirkland blasted long home runs in the Washington Senators' intra-squad game, and from Casa Grande, Ariz., where San Francisco's Jack Sanford pitched for the first time since his arm operation last July.

The big right-hander, who underwent surgery to correct a circulatory ailment, threw several fastballs during a brief stint in an intra-club game and expressed no concern over his lack of control. "The main thing is that I'm throwing," he said.

The Pittsburgh Pirates received word that outfield ace Roberto Clemente, recovering from malaria at his home in Puerto Rico, has lost 20 pounds but should be able to join the club at Fort Myers, Fla., later this month.

The Cleveland Indians fired the first shots of the exhibition season last night, defeating the Monterrey Sultans 5-1 in the opener of a four-game Mexican swing. Vic Davalillo hit a two-run homer for the Indians and pitchers Sonny Siebert, Steve Bailey and Ted Abernathy blanked the host club after the first inning.

More Duties For Captain Mays As Liaison Officer

He Will Assist Manager

By MIKE RATHET

CASA GRANDE, Ariz. (AP) — There's no doubt that Willie Mays, baseball's highest paid player, will have more problems this season.

But they won't be his.

Under the new regime of Manager Herman Franks, the $105,000 center fielder figures to qualify for an oak-leaf cluster to go with his captain's rating by acting as liaison between the manager and the San Francisco players.

"I can only get so close to the players," said Franks in explaining his decision to tap Mays for the new job. "He can get closer."

"Some players feel they can't go to the manager with their problems," said Mays. "They're embarrassed and can talk about their problems with a player easier. Then I'll take the matter up with the manager and get his advice."

Did the new job mean that Mays is thinking of a coaching or managing career when his playing day's are over?

"No," he said quickly and firmly. "When you start thinking about managing and coaching you have to think about limiting your playing and I don't want to do that yet."

Mays, however, probably will get more rest this year and hopes that will keep him from falling into the severe batting slumps that trimmed his average to .296 last season—the first time in eight years he's dropped under the .300 level.

"I don't plan to rest him if he doesn't need it," said Franks. "But I definitely will rest him when he's tired. It won't be on any sort or regular basis and I won't wait for him to tell me. I think I'll know when he's tired."

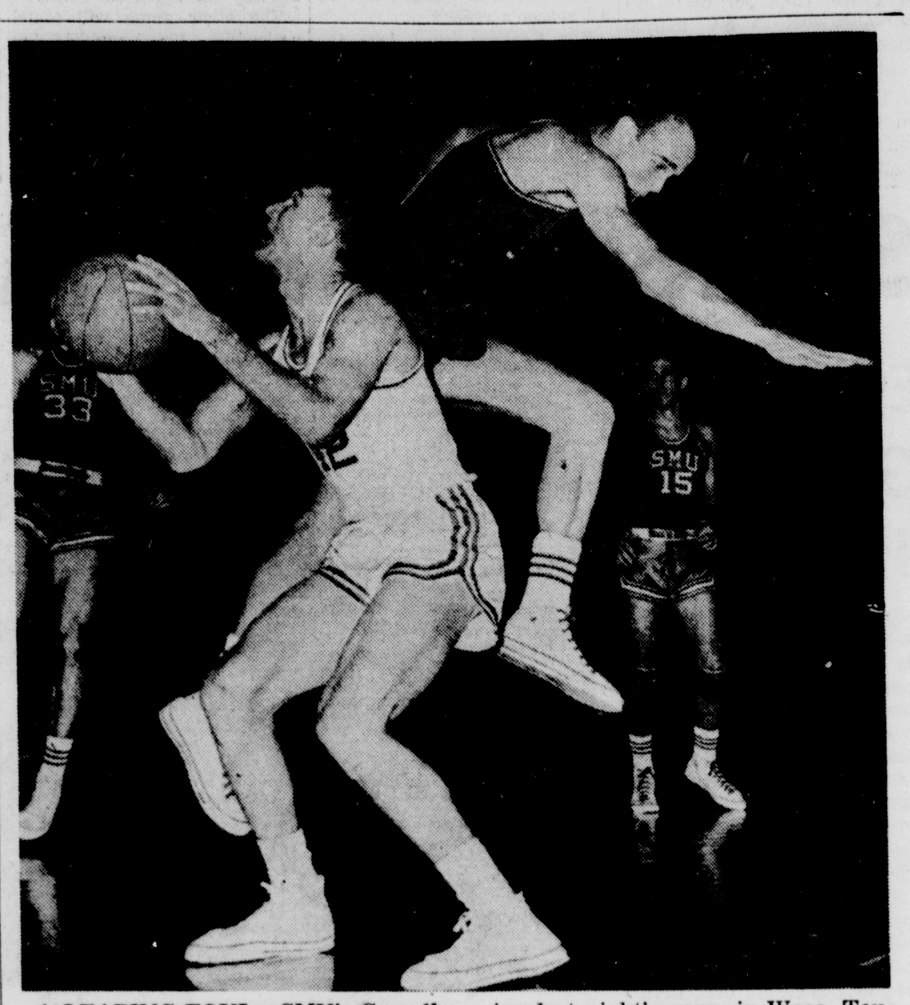

"I didn't have any chance to get any kind of rest last year," said Mays. "The pennant race was so tight, they couldn't afford to give me a rest, I understand that but I think I need a day off once in a while to cut out some of the dry spells."

Mays then pointed out that his failure to get a rest last season wasn't the only reason he ran into dry spells at the plate.

"You know when I was hitting .400 I told everyone it's only the first two months and not a whole season," he explained, "but all the writers kept asking me what I was doing and could I hit .400 for the season.

"The pitchers coming up are stronger today," he said, "and if a batter can hit .300 in this league he's done terrific."

"Maybe, even, if he hits .296 but slams 47 homers and drives in 111 runs.

DAVIS CUP HOPES

Pancho To Coach?

NEW YORK (AP) — Pancho Gonzales, The Fox, again may be Uncle Sam's secret weapon in the campaign to win back the Davis Cup.

"I'll admit I'm leaning toward Pancho as our coach," the new Davis Cup tennis captain, George MacCall, said today in announcing his early plans. "A lot will depend on whether he is available'.'

Gonzales, the former pro king who is said to have the finest tactical mind in the sport, is credited largely with America's success in winning the Cup from Australia in 1958 and 1963.

"I am considering some other coaches, too," Mac Call added. "Some of the best teachers in the business — George Tolley of Southern California, Clarence Mabry of Trinity University, Tex., Bill Price of St. Louis, and Ed Faulkner, who coached the team last year.

"We're going to get the best man we can and make every effort to win the Cup. This is not an experimental year. This is an all-out year."

In New York yesterday to meet the press, the 46-year-old MacCall, an insurance executive and club player in Los Angeles who once was an Air Force navigator, was promised the full support of the USLTA.

"Whatever money is needed to win the Cup, MacCall can have it," promised Harold Lebair, the USLTA treasurer. "We've got the money."

The United States collected some $100,000 from the Challenge Round in Cleveland last year when the Australians won the trophy. A Cup campaign figures to cost around $20,000.

MacCall said he would assemble his first squad in mid-May — a four-man squad consisting of top-ranked Dennis Ralston, Frank Froehling III, Ron Holmberg and 18-year-old Cliff Richey.

These four will wage an extended European campaign, starting with the French championships in May and ending with Wimbledon in July.

"We are considering several other boys who aren't available for this trip," the captain said. "They include Chuck McKinley, Arthur Ashe, Marty Riessen, Clark Graebner, Gene Scott and others. We'll know more by the middle of the summer."

The United States' first match will be against Canada in mid-May. If successful, the Yanks then likely will go against Mexico at Mexico City, the European champion in Europe and, if still going, the Australians in Sydney after Christmas.

Cancer Kills Former U.S. Star Skater

UTICA, N. Y. (AP) — Valentine Bialas, captain of the 1928 U.S. Olympic team and the only American speed skater to qualify for four Olympic Games, died of cancer today at his home here. He was 61.

Bialas, who refused to let an artificial leg interfere with his skating, had been city commissioner of parks and recreation since 1962.

The stocky, barrel-chested skater, a native of Boston, was named to his first Olympic squad at the age of 20 in 1924.

He competed in the 1928 and 1932 Olympics and had qualified for the 1936 Games when tragedy cut short his career.

Bialas and a companion were returning to Utica from Minneapolis on Jan. 21, 1935, when their automobile skidded on an icy road outside of Michigan City, Ind., and struck a moving train.

Bialas, who had managed to leap from the car, rolled under the wheels of the train. The accident resulted in the amputation of his right leg below the knee.

But the courageous competitor returned to the sport as an instructor the following year, using an artificial leg.

Survivors, besides his wife, Elizabeth, include a son, John Berner of Universal City, Tex., and a daughter, Judith Mary, of Utica.

Funeral services will be Saturday at his home and at St. Francis DeSales church. Burial will be in St. Agnes Cemetery.

Awards Night

Cal Riemcke, basketball coach at College of Marin, will be the main speaker at the annual awards night for Terra Linda High School basketball players and wrestlers tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

Russian Cagers To Play In S.F.

The Soviet Union national basketball team, runner-up to the United States in the Tokyo Olympics last October, will play eight games in this country, one of them in San Francisco on April 3.

The Russian team will play a hand-picked U.S. amateur team to be chosen after the AAU National Tournament in Denver ending March 4.

BASKETBALL ROUNDUP

Michigan Loses Without All-American Mr. Russell

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Michigan, with Cazzie Russell on the bench, lost one that really didn't matter and Princeton, with Bill Bradley in the drivers seat, won one that mattered very much, indeed.

The mighty Wolverines, the nation's top-ranked college basketball team, found themselves assured of the Big Ten title and the accompanying NCAA tourney berth and had All-America Russell ailing going into last night's regular season windup with Ohio State.

So Coach Dave Strack sat Russell on the bench. Result — a 93-85 Ohio State upset, the top game in a scattering of regular season activity.

Princeton, meanwhile, got a typical clutch performance from Bradley, Player of the Year and a two-time All-America, in edging Penn State 60-58 and leading the advance of five teams through first-round activity in the far-flung NCAA tourney.

Bradley, who had 22 points, six assists and nine rebounds, scored six clutch points in the last 2½ minutes as the Tigers held off Penn State in the first game of a triple header at Philadelphia, with all winners advancing to the semis of the East regional tourney.

Nationally third-ranked St. Joseph's, Pa., had its hands full and had to come from behind for a 67-61 triumph over Connecticut while Providence romped over West Virginia 91-67 in the other two.

At Lubbock, Tex., Houston edged Notre Dame 99-98 in overtime as Ed Winch dropped in two free throws with six seconds left and Oklahoma City nipped Colorado State 70-68 on Charlie Hunter's jump shot in the final second. That put Houston in the Midwest regional semis and Oklahoma City in the West semis.

Meanwhile, the tourney field was completed in playoffs at Waco, Tex., and Dayton, Ohio, to determine the Southwest and Mid-America Conference representatives. Southern Methodist took Texas 80-78 at Waco and Ohio held off Miami of Ohio, 76-71 at Dayton.

That made the line-up for the NCAA regionals, all Friday and Saturday, with the latest rankings and season records, now read:

East, at College Park, Md. — North Carolina State 20-4 vs. Princeton 20-5, and No. 4 Providence 23-1 vs. No. 3 St. Joseph's, Pa. 26-1.

Mideast, at Lejington, Ky. — No. 1 Michigan 21-3 vs. winner of tonight's Ohio U.-Dayton game, and No. 5 Vanderbilt 23-3 vs. winner of tonight's Eastern Kentucky-DePaul game.

Midwest, at Manhattan, Kan. — Oklahoma State 19-6 vs. Houston 19-8, and Southern Methodist 16-9 vs. Wichita 19-7.

West, at Provo, Utah — San Francisco 23-4 vs. Oklahoma City 20-9, and No. 10 Brigham Young 21-5 vs. No. 2 UCLA 24-2.

PHILLIES NEEDLE BELINSKY

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

CLEARWATER, Fla. (UPI) —Outside the Philadelphia Phillies' clubhouse it was cold and damp and inside the players were idly sitting around, hoping maybe the sun would come out.

Suddenly there was a stir among those nearest the door.

"We can start now," called out another. "Our big man is here."

Bo Belinsky grinned goodnaturedly as he strode through the center of the clubhouse. He was being needled and he knew it. The raucous reception didn't bother him one bit.

Wearing dark glasses and a black turtle-neck pullover along with matching continental-type trousers, Bo looked as if he had just stepped off a sound stage in a Hollywood movie studio. He walked first to the trainer's room and then made his way back to his locker.

"These guys here are a great bunch," he said, gesturing toward some of his new Philadelphia teammates. "They're sort of wondering about (Dick) Stuart and me, how we're gonna fit in.

"No problems, though. I can feel the tranquility over here already that I didn't feel with those people on the West Coast. They don't bug you here. They let you live a little. That Gene Mauch is the greatest. I'm gonna like pitching for him."

Mauch says he's counting on Belinsky as one of his regular starters and has been agreeably surprised at how well he has been humming the ball.

"I'm surprised myself," confessed Bo, honest as always. "The last time I pitched was against Cleveland in July and I didn't think I'd be throwing this hard so soon. My arm feels better than it has the last two springs. Nothing wrong with it at all.

"What kind of a year am I gonna have? Well, I'll say this: It's entirely up to me. I'd just like to finish out the season. I haven't been able to do even that the last two years."

Back in 1963, the Angels shipped him back to the minors after he pitched a no-hit, no-run game for them the year previous and last year he had a 9-8 record up to July, then was suspended when he refused to report to Hawaii after getting into a hassle with a Los Angeles sports writer.

"Yeah, I sure think I'm gonna like it here," he repeated. "Like I say, they don't bug you. They tell you something once and that's it. They treat you as if you're an adult, not a kid."

As he was talking, someone came up to Belinsky and asked him how old he was.

"Twenty-eight," he said. "A young 28."

Real Good Deal Wins Feature

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP)— To Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Johnston and assorted bettors, the San Bernardino Handicap at Santa Anita Park was a real good deal.

That was the name of the horse that easily captured, by three lengths, the $25,000-added event yesterday, paying $4.60, $2.80 and $2.80.

STEVENS

In spite of some rather mean winds and the resulting rough water, the overall picture of salmon and bass catches was fairly bright during the latter part of last week.

Salmon trolling, which lapsed into a period of doldrums, came back in good order. Hal Boenner, reporting on four party boats working from his bait and tackle shop in Oakland, made this plain as the boat Sea Horse netted 19 salmon to 11 pounds; The Chinook accounted for 23 to 18 pounds; the Lancer had 21 to 20 pounds and the Lucky Day came in with 8 salmon to 20 pounds (The Lucky Day had a short load — only 5 rods).

Boenner also reported a good job of catching stripers. Carl Lawrence and friend boated two limits of bass and a 25-pound sturgeon, fishing off China Camp.

HIGH WINDS and rough water slowed down the action on the Marin side of the bay to a certain extent, in the upper areas. Joe Nerviani of Joe's Launching at Santa Venetia labeled the weather during most of last week as "plain miserable," but some 26 large bass came in on Saturday, and at 10 o'clock Sunday morning one skiff with three aboard had docked with nine nice stripers. With better conditions predicted for the balance of this week, chances should be rated good.

ACROSS THE upper San Pablo, on the Contra Costa side, bass fishing, while using sardine or shrimp baits, showed a marked improvement. Johnny Sivera and his boat Happy Days landed 3 sturgeon and 2 bass, one 18 and one 20 pounder; Skipper Bob O'Brien on the Dowrelio No. 6 accounted for 9 stripers, all of good size and 1 sturgeon.

The areas in the San Francisco and South Bay waters have not been fished as heavily as usual, and not very many fishermen gave it a trial.

REPORTS OF bass catches in the back country are very niggardly but, talking with Mrs. Patrick, whose word to me is gospel, reported lots of action with catfish. I judge, from the many reports that have come in, some rather hefty ones, too.

AN IRATE voice on the phone, referring to a recent column of mine, asked "What do you mean — an 81-pound thresher shark is a world's record?" My caller should read that column again. I wrote that a local angler, E. G. Volpe, caught said shark off Santa Cruz while using a 20-pound test line. All World Record Marine Game Fish are judged by line test. For example, a thresher shark weighing 992 pounds was caught on 130-pound test, one weighing 92 pounds, 8 ounces was caught on 12 pounds. A lady angler in 1956 landed a 248-pound thresher on 50-pound test, and a man, Robert Dyer, landed one weighing 338 pounds on a 50-pound test line. It just happened that the 20-pound test class was taken by Mr. Volpe.

'If I Had A Hammer' Might Be Theme Of Resin Craft Class

By DOROTHY NEWELL

Would you believe that in using a hammer, empty bottle and liquid resin a beautiful mosaic could be made?

Well, that is just what is being done in classes of resin craft in Novato.

Mrs. Donald Rose began the resin craft as a hobby over a year ago and became so enthusiastic that she turned the hobby into a profit making business and is now conducting three classes for other women in the Novato area.

THE CRAFT in many ways includes a hobby within a hobby, as items collected such as shells, rocks, butterflies and pine cones are used in table tops, ashtrays or mosaics.

Mrs. Rose pointed out that for those that want to have matching or contrasting color to go with the decor in their home, the resin can be colored in the liquid state and will retain the same color when set.

MRS. ROSE'S two largest projects have been a sphere light fixture for her living room and a mosaic for her bathroom. To form the sphere she used a 24 inch beach ball which she waxed and the used resin in a paste form covering the ball, adding shredded pieces of fibre glass, giving the sphere an opaque white finish. To add color to the sphere, she used colors that would harmonize with her living room, picking up accent colors in red, green, brown, orange, blue and amber. The colored resin was poured in mixing bowls and when set, the resin was broken into angular pieces with a hammer and then glued into the sphere. She then deflated the beach ball and removed it from the center of the sphere.

TO MAKE THE bathroom mosaic, Mrs. Rose used mylar as a backing for her frame and then a sheet of fibre glass. Liquid resin was poured over this and shells, which she collected while in Cuba will be permanently preserved in the mosaic along with the eye of a peacock feather, sea horse and a large fan coral. The entire mosaic was painted with a clear resin to give a high gloss and bring out the details in the shells.

IN WORKING with ceramic forms and making ash trays, Mrs. Rose explained that she pours resin two times, letting each pour set before placing the embedments, and then resin is again poured and allowed to set. The embedments are placed face down, working from the back of the form.

FRIENDS AND relatives of Mrs. Rose are sharing her new hobby as she made all of her Christmas gifts. Again personalizing the gifts, she would use rock for the rockhound, cards for the bridge player and ferns and leaves for the naturalist, preserving them in the plastic in various forms.

THE CLASS also learns to make grape clusters in plastic which can be made at a fraction of the cost that specialty stores sell them. Mrs. Rose explained that the plastics are very durable and in showing this, bounced one of the large grapes on the floor without a mark showing on it.

MRS. ROSE said that she has been interested in various crafts throughout the years, but Mrs. Robert Rankin of Hobby Land "gave me the boost," to take up resin craft and over a year ago she attended a resin course in Santa Rosa. Now she has a class on Tuesday evening, and Wednesday afternoon and evening which includes eight lessons.

Patricia Rose attended San Rafael High School and when a senior married Donald, who is an employee of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. in San Rafael.

"I'm not one for being away from home, and I always wanted to teach," Mrs. Rose said, "and in this way I can combine both."

THE ROSES have three children, Junie, Susan and Michael who have also become interested in the craft.

WITH PATRICIA'S enthusiasm for the resin craft, we can imagine that a number of Novatans will be joining her soon in having a hobby within a hobby.

MRS. DAVID ROSE of Novato enthusiastically discusses the new mosaic she has just completed with one of her students in her new resin craft classes, Mrs. Alfred Suneson. Mrs. Rose gathered the sea shells on a trip to Cuba many years ago, and points out how the resin craft can be combined with other hobbies. The mosaic which combines the shells, the eye of a peacock tail resmbling a fish, in the upper right and corner and fan coral, will be displayed in her bathroom.

Pomeroys To Narrate Voyage

Color Slides, accompanied by narration, of "580 Lazy Days Around The World" on the yacht "Nereus" will be presented by Mr. and Mrs. William A. Pomeroy on March 17.

The St. Patrick's Day program will be held at 8 p.m. in Campbell Hall, Christ Church, Sausalito. No reservations will be taken.

Sponsored by St. Brigid's Guild, this is the first in the 1965 travel talk series started by the guild in 1948. Proceeds go to the guild.

Tamalpais School To Hold Program

"Responsibilities of the Social Worker in Education" will be the topic for the March 18 meeting of the Tamalpais Nursery School at the school in Mill Valley.

The speaker will be Miss Donna Dibble, guidance consultant for the Mill Valley School District. She also serves as liaison between the public schools and the nursery school.

After the talk the annual corporate meeting of the school with election of trustees will be conducted by retiring chairman Mrs. Arthur Bickford.

Conservationist Schedules Speech

Speaker at the Marin Division of the California Retired Teachers' Assn. will be Mary Summers, former chairman of the Marin County planning director, and currently president of Marin Conservation League, when they meet for luncheon at Peacock Gap Country Club on March 16. Her subject will be "Conservation Problems in Marin County."

Susan Elizabeth Detweiler Becomes Bride

Susan Elizabeth Detweiler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Struss Detweiler of San Anselmo, became the bride of Franklin Maxey Jarman of Nashville, Tenn., at 5:30 p.m. on Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church of San Rafael.

The Rev. Wesley C. Baker officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length gown of antique white peau de soie trimmed in rose point lace with full train and a waist length mantilla veil.

Catherine Detweiler of San Anselmo was her sister's maid of honor and Mrs. Joseph Erwin of Nashville, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Both wore full length dresses of French blue silk crepe and chiffon.

Walton Maxey Jarman of Nashville acted as his son's best man and John Detweiler of San Anselmo, brother of the bride, Joseph Erwin, Allen Sullivan, Joseph Robinson, John Haselton and Marion Smith, all of Nashville, ushered.

The couple departed from their reception, which was held at Peacock Gap Country Club, by helicopter. They will spend a week in St. Thomas of the Virgin Islands during which they will scuba dive.

Susan, who is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Koons of Laguna Beach and Rev. John F. Detweiler of Los Angeles, was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School. She received a degree in mathematics from Wellesley College and was employed in the instrumentation laboratory of The Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Franklin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walton Maxey Jarman of Nashville, Tenn., and the brother of Mrs. Joseph Erwin of Nashville and Mrs. Fred Taylor of Falls Church, Va. He was graduated from Montgomery Bell Academy in Nashville and Massachusetts Institute of Technology with a bachelor's degree in engineering.

He is presently a Captain in the Air Force Reserves and is financial vice president of GENESCO Inc. and president of Beacon Aircraft Inc. of Nashville.

The couple will reside in Nashville and New York.

Park School P-TA To Feature Banjo For St. Pat's Day

Mill Valley's Park School P-TA will bring back by popular demand Elmer Snowden and his banjo to entertain at a March 17 St. Patrick's Day dinner.

It will be held at the Mill Valley Golf Club beginning at 7 p.m.

Snowden will be accompanied by Bill Thorpe on the guitar and vocal numbers will be handled by Bea Thorpe.

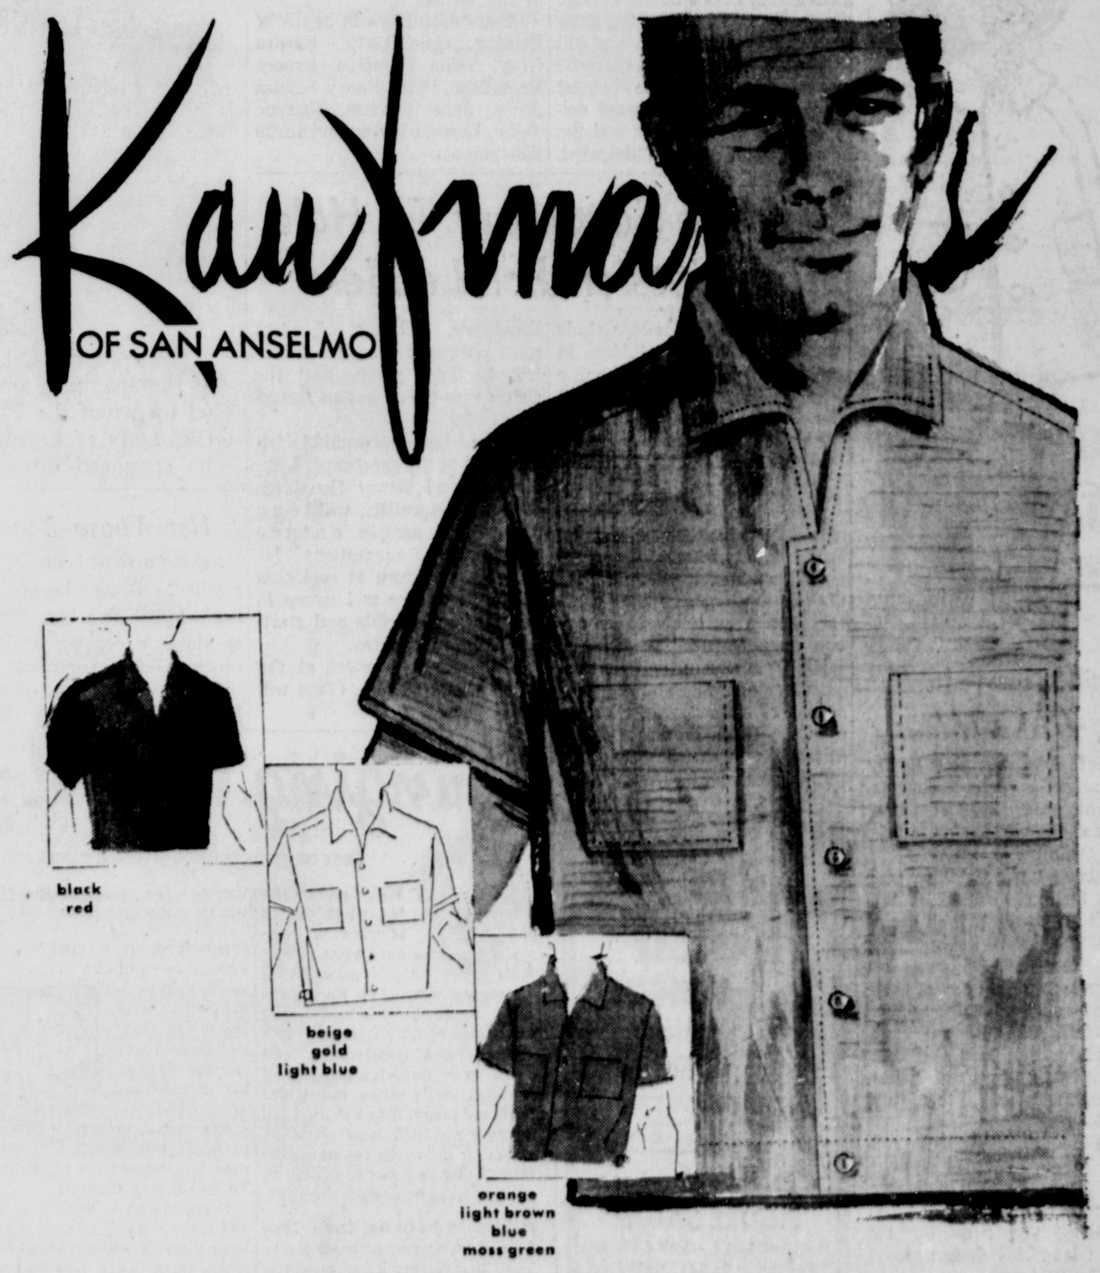

Entertainment provided by these musicians was so successful last year that even parents no longer connected with Park School are planning to attend.

Larkspur Druids Plan Sale Friday

Larkspur Circle 166 United Ancient Order Druids, will hold their annual rummage sale on Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Legion Hall in Larkspur.

Mesdames H. C. Boyer and Geri Cassandra are co-chairmen of the sale, proceeds of which will benefit the Community Service fund.

NOT I-DENT-ICAL

Men Lead In Dental Health

By PATRICIA McCORMACK

NEW YORK (UPI)—In one arena in the battle of the sexes, women have lost ground that never again can be recaptured.

UNCLE SAM'S counters of such things maintain in a new report that Yankee Doodle damsels aren't good at holding onto their teeth as are Yankee Doodle dandies.

Statisticians from the U.S. Public Health Service say a survey indicates that more women than men have lost all of their permanent teeth.

That makes the women who have done so edentulous—toothless. Ditto for the men in the same condition.

But the off-beat aspect of the study is that women, heretofore credited with being ahead of men in health care, somehow have neglected their teeth to a greater extent than have the men.

But the superiority of men in the dental health field doesn't stop there.

THE REPORT also showed that the mean number of decayed, missing or filled teeth also was generally higher for women than for men of comparable age.

By contrast, however, periodontal disease was less severe and less prevalent in women.

That is the kind of disease that, in simplest terms, attacks the gums and often leads to a loss of perfectly good teeth. The supporting structures—tooth sockets — become weak as a wet noodel and the good teeth fall out.

The report, part of the National Health Survey, showed that 111 million adults represented by the sample had an average of 20.4 missing, decayed and filled teeth per person.

About three out of four with natural teeth showed some evidence of gingivitis or destructive periodontal disease.

THE ASSUMULATED effects of dental disease, it was discovered, rose abruptly with age.

While only about one in every 100 persons 18 to 24 years of age was edentulous, by age 65 to 74 years nearly one in two had lost all of his or her teeth.

The report on the state of the nation's dental health also showed:

—White adults were twice as likely as Negro to have lost all their natural teeth, either in one or both jaws.

—THE AVERAGE number of decayed, missing, and filled teeth in Negroes was only about two-thirds of the number found in white persons—14.5 and 21.2 teeth, respectively.

—From 18 to 44 years of age, persons of both sexes had approximately seven to eight filled teeth.

Beaded Curtains Make Their Debut

CHICAGO (UPI)—One old idea's fast becoming the newest thing around the contemporary home.

It's decorative beads made of modern materials, new permanent stringing, the latest colors. Some beaded curtain materials, set to make their debut at the Russ Stonier Designs showroom in the Merchandise Mart, can be bought by the yard. Uses: to dress up plain shower curtains, make exotic vanity skirts, disguise storage areas or create instant art for unadorned walls.

Sausalito Pastor Will Speak On Marin Counseling Service

The Marin Pastoral Counseling Service will be the subject of the Rev. David Jacobsen's talk at the Thursday luncheon meeting of the women of the First Presbyterian Church of San Rafael in Canoles Hall.

Rev. Jacobsen is the pastor of the Sausalito Presbyterian Church and head of the Counseling Service which is sponsored by the Marin County Council of Churches. He is a graduate of the San Francisco Theological Seminary and has has master's degree in Pastoral Counseling from the Seminary. One of his community activities is the chairmanship of the Marin Study Center committee for the Sausalito and Tamalpais School Districts which provides tutoring opportunities for children in these districts.

Mrs. John Carrothers will preside at the meeting. Mrs. James DeLury will give the devotions. Members of the March Circle, Mrs. M. W. Firth, chairman, will serve the luncheon.

Pieces Of Ham

Those last slivers of ham can be golden treasures when you find them as a surprise in a bowl of soup or a macaroni salad.

Carolyn Sue Kern Is Married

The Rev. Leonard Calegari officiated at the wedding of Carolyn Sue Kern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell A. Kern of San Rafael, and Walter J. Hill Jr. of San Rafael at 11:30 a.m. on Feb. 27 in Blessed Sacrament Church, San Rafael.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father in the double ring ceremony. She wore a full length gown of white chantilly lace with re-embroidered trim and chapel train.

Mona Van Note of San Rafael acted as maid of honor and Mrs. Russell Kern Jr. of San Rafael was matron of honor. Barbara Gommo, also of San Rafael, was bridesmaid. All wore scarlet red velveteen and satin full length dresses.

Diane and Peter Kern of Pacifica were flower girl and ringbearer.

Richard Wayne Kern, brother of the bride, was best man and her other brothers, Michael and Russell Kern Jr. ushered.

Following a reception at the Redwood Club in San Rafael, the couple left on a wedding trip to Carmel.

Caroline was graduated from Terra Linda High School and Walter attended Joseph Knapp ..gh School. Both are employed with Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. in San Rafael.

Mrs. Helen Kern of San Rafael is the bride's grandmother.

Mimi Walker Will Represent College Of Marin In Contest

Mimi Walker, a sophomore at College of Marin who lives in Novato, has been named the best-dressed coed at the College in an election held by the associated Women Students. She will represent the College in Glamour Magazine's nationwide contest to find the 10 best dressed college girls. Miss Walker and the 12 semi-finalists she defeated, will all model in the Associated Women Students' fashion show May 3 at Dominic's Restaurant in San Rafael.

Others modeling will be Kathy Britting, Gale Davis, Sandra Gray, Velda Hampton, Sandra Henderson, Helen Henry, Sandra Jones, Janet Schwab, Suzanne Tobin, Lorrain Wilson and Susan Worthington.

Wildlife Sanctuary To Hold Study Session For Leaders

Two sessions on nature study and how to interest children in nature will be held for Camp Fire leaders March 15 and 16 at the Richardson Bay Wildlife Sanctuary, Tiburon. Leaders must pre-register as the groups will be kept small. Call the Camp Fire Office in San Rafael to register.

John Larson, ornithologist-manager at the sanctuary, Lynn Stafford and Henry Houghton, program naturalists, will lead discussions, sample nature walks, give suggestions for bringing in nature at cook-outs and picnics, how and where to get nature materials and starting nature programs.

The group will meet at the sanctuary at 10 a.m. Class will end at 2 p.m.

Tropical Hula

NEW YORK (UPI)—A low-calorie beverage with a tropical flavor is cranberry hula. Prechill, then mix together 2 cups of dietetic cranberry juice cocktail, 1 cup each of strong tea and unsweetened pineapple juice, 1 (16 ounce) bottle of noncaloric gingerale, and 2 tablespoons of lemon juice. Sweeten to taste with liquid artificial sweetener. Add ice cubes and garnish with lime slices.

SOMETHING FOR ALL

Even Jackie Cat likes the looks of the spaghetti which will be dished up when the Parents Guild of Our Lady of Loretto Church holds its spaghetti dinner in the parish hall in Novato from 4 to 7 p.m. on Sunday. Working on the feast are Mrs. Eric Selberg, left, and Mrs. Robert H. M. Lehman, chairman. (Independent-Journal photo)

Bringing Up Baby®

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Worth remembering when you're tempted to compare your angel's achievements with a same-age baby of your acquaintance: if your baby is temporarily outdistanced by his (or her) neighborhood counterpart, he'll catch up in muscular, mental and manual skills when mind and spirit are ready. If he's in the lead, chances are he'll level off while the other little tyke catches up to him. Thing to do is to delight in your child as he flowers naturally.

Nutrition bulletin from Dan Gerber. "You may be interested to know that Gerber Rice Cereal has something extra in the way of nourishment. It's the only infant rice cereal containing rice polishings . . . a good natural source of vitamin-B complex. The rice polishings (taken from one of the inner layers of the rice grain) not only improve the nutritive values but also enhance the flavor of this exceptional cereal. No doubt about it. When you buy Gerber, you're sure of your money's worth in nourishment."

Fruitful reminder. Gerber Strained and Junior Fruits also make fine finales for baby meals. And swell toppings for cereal or the plain vanilla pudding.

Progress report. As your baby advances beyond the six-months mark, he'll try all manner of exciting things. Now's the time to encourage his efforts but a few words to the wise:

• Remember, he can absorb just so much at one time, so try not to urge him beyond his capabilities. To do so, may frustrate.

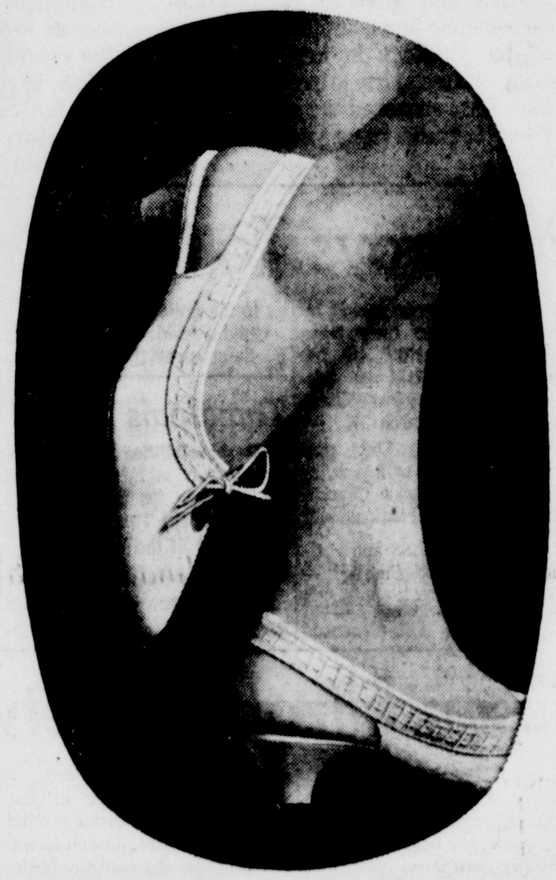

• If you teach one thing at a time, and make a game of each lesson, your cherub will respond with relish, learn faster, fare better.

Super supper suggestion, with nutritional overtones. Gerber Strained Creamed Cottage Cheese is a meal perker-upper if there ever was one. Mild, mild cottage cheese is flavor-spiked with sunny, mellow pineapple for flavor galore . . . and smiles by the score. Nutritious, too! It's a good source of protein and riboflavin, an important B-vitamin. Gerber® Baby Foods, Box 72. Fremont, Michigan.

Plan Musicale, Open House At Violin Institute Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Vlado Kolitsch will be hosts at a musicale and open house Sunday at the Violin Institute of California, which the concert violinist-teacher has just founded in San Rafael.

The public is invited.

The institute is located at 1732 Lincoln Ave. in one of the old San Rafael mansions.

Presenting the musicale at 3 p.m. will be one of the professor's advanced scholarship students, Eric Kassell, assisted at the piano by Miss Merle Sare.

He will play Sonata No. 8 by Beethoven, Sonata No. 2 by Bach and Ravel's "Tzigane" and other numbers by a San Francisco composer.

Following the program a reception will be held. Co-hostesses assisting Mrs. Kolitsch with serving refreshments will be Mesdames Otis Schweiter and Lincoln B. Wirt of San Rafael.

Club To See 'Floral Ideas'

Marin County Christian Women's Club will hold its luncheon at noon March 19 at Peacock Gap Country Club.

Florist Katherine Eubanks of Larkspur will present "Original Ideas in Floral Decorating." Director of Youth for Christ for Greater San Francisco Warren Ninness will be guest speaker.

Bacteria Exists In Ordinary Wash

WASHINGTON (UPI)—It may surprise the fastidious housewife to know it may be her own wash that's helping to spread the cold germs. Even though her laundry seems fresher than springtime when she takes it out of the washing machine, it still can be playing host to an army of unpleasant germs.

This is the conclusion reached in tests of home laundry methods by the Department of Agriculture's Clothing and Textile Laboratory. As many as 30 kinds of bacteria can survive the usual washing process despite the vast selection of suds and detergents, the government researchers reported. As a result of the tests, the researchers recommended that housewives use disinfectants in their wash.

SEAT BELTS ARE FOR DOGS, TOO

The Air Defense Command at Hamilton Air Force Base, now in the midst of a safety seat belt campaign, believes in automobile seat belts for dogs as well as people. Chennie, the big boxer, apparently agrees as he sits in his dog-style belt alongside 5-year-old Helen Porter, daughter of S/Sgt. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Porter of 178 Bodkin Avenue on the base. Move For Unification Is Called Inevitable

Unification of the Dixie and San Rafael schools districts is inevitable, two representatives of the Dixie district conceded to nine members of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce legislative committee yesterday.

Therefore, said Supt. Dennie B. Willis, voters must be educated so they will demand policies which best favor the unified district and its pupils.

Willis and trustee Lawrence M. Kramer (now a candidate for the San Rafael Board of Education) answered questions during the committee's breakfast meeting.

While both men favor delaying the unification, they stressed the need to objective information, rather than arguing either side of the controversy, according to chamber secretary Jack Alvardo.

Kramer related the history of other small school districts which have unified with larger ones. Willis explained how unification would affect the financial situation of each district.

State legislators, Willis said, have made it clear that unification will come "whether we like it or not." School officials and the public must face this, he said, and act in the best interests of the youngsters.

Next month's meeting will feature two speakers favoring immediate unification.

Judge Gets Courtroom

Judge Samuel W. Gardiner of Marin Superior Court began holding sessions yesterday afternoon in a new courtroom at the San Rafael courthouse and Judge Harold J. Haley was expected to begin use of a new, fourth courtroom tomorrow.

The two rooms are result of dividing in two the large single courtroom of Department Three. George H. Gnoss, county clerk, said only minor details are delaying use of the second courtroom.

Final Push Begins In Marine War Game

CAMP PENDLETON (UPI) — Three Marine units totaling 20,000 men linked up yesterday to begin a final push to save the mythical nation of Lancelot from guerrillas in Exercise Silver Lance.

Silver Lance, the largest Navy-Marine maneuvers ever held, began Feb. 23 when the first of a task force of 60 ships and 50,000 men sailed from San Diego, Long Beach and San Francisco for the 18-day exercise.

Gets Year In Attack Case

William Freeman, 21, San Francisco man who pleaded guilty to rape of a 16-year-old runaway girl from Belvedere, was sentenced to a year in county jail yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

Judge Thomas F. Keating also placed him on three years probation.

Freeman was arrested by San Francisco police last Sept. 22 after the victim told officers she was raped by one of two men she met and joined at a Marin City bus stop Sept. 13. The offense happened near Manzanita School, the girl said.

He Found Tanganika Road Work Enjoyable

By BONNIE BROWN
Terra Linda High School Student

Surveying for new roads in rural Tanganyika may not be everybody's idea of the most enjoyable way to spend two years, but it was a period of discovery and valuable education for Francis Lum, a recent addition to Terra Linda High School's mathematics department.

After hearing of President Kennedy's plan for groups of Americans to work in underdeveloped countries around the world, Lum applied immediately to join the project. Just one month later, in June of 1961, he was in training for his sojourn to Africa. This fast action may be attributed to the fact that this was the first Peace Corps project to be initiated.

After five months of training in Texas, Puerto Rico, and Tanganyika, including two months of instruction in Swahili, the 35 Peace Corps volunteers on the project were ready to be placed in the African culture. Even after thorough training, it took about six months to become adequately familiar with their surroundings.

The primary need of the people seemed to be "feeder" roads from farms to markets, so Lum began to operate as a road surveyor, working with a crew of mostly uneducated, yet extremely friendly and courteous Africans.

The courtesy of the people is one of the major things which impressed him. "If we used a word in Swahili incorrectly, they would use the word also instead of telling us we were wrong," he related.

The project members lived in government housing with running water and electricity. However, while on special projects, they pitched tents and "roughed it" in the true sense of the phrase.

Lum and his fellow volunteers were paid $2 a day while in training, $160 monthly for living expenses in addition to travel costs, and $75 each month was deposited in the bank in the United States to get them back on their feet when they returned home.

The first project was in Tanganyika. In December of 1961, Tanganyika achieved independence from Britain and joined with Zanzibar to form the Republic of Tanzandia in 1962. Being a former British colony, it developed a system of government similar to England's, with Julius Nyerere, a highly educated African, as president.

The leaders attempted to get all Africans in top jobs by adopting a system whereby an African would get a position before any other, regardless of ability, Lum related. Since then, however, a more equitable system has been initiated.

Lum declares that the time went by quickly, and it was very rewarding in accomplishments for the Africans, knowledge gained, and friendships made.

"One person can not do a whole lot, but enough going over will be a great deal of help," he emphasized.

After two years of service, he came back to finish his schooling at University of California and join the Terra Linda High faculty in January of this year. His hope is someday to go back.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, March 9, the 68th day of 1965 with 297 to follow.

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning star is Mars. The evening stars are Mars and Jupiter.

Amerigo Vespucci, the Italian navigator for whom America is named was born on this day in 1451.

On this day in history:

In 1832, Abraham Lincoln ran for his first political office, the Illinois legislature, and lost.

In 1862, the warships Monitor and Merrimac battled for four hours off Hampton Roads, Va., in a highlight engagement of the Civil War. It ended in a draw.

In 1947, one of the longest strikes in U.S. history ended after 440 days when the United Automobile Workers came to terms with the Case manufacturing Co. of Racine, Wis.

In 1962, 31 miners were killed in a coal mine explosion in West Germany.

A thought for the day—Russian author Tolstoy once said "The more is given, the less the people will work for themselves, and the less they work the more their poverty will increase."

TIME AND TIDE

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Defender Outwits Innocent Declarer At Bridge Table

Don't insist on playing the hand at a major suit rather than at notrump.

Seven tricks in one suit are just as useful at notrump as they are at a trump contract. In today's hand South should have raised to three notrump instead of bidding four hearts.

Opening lead — ♣ J

North would make game at notrump even against the best opening lead—a heart. North could win and lead a low diamond to make sure of two diamonds and seven hearts.

CLUB OPENING

West opened the jack of clubs against the actual contract of four hearts. When dummy played low, East played his lowest club, hoping for a switch to diamonds. West ignored this signal, leading the ten of clubs, and East had to capture dummy's king with the ace.

East shrewdly returned a heart to get an entry out of dummy before the spades were started.

South won with the queen of hearts and led a low spade, finessing with dummy's nine since East surely had the ace of spades for his opening bid but was not bound to have the queen of spades.

FALSE CARD

Instead of taking the trick with the queen of spades East casually won with the ace of spades and then returned his other heart to dummy's jack.

Since South was sure that West had the queen of spades he cashed dummy's king of spades and then ruffed a low spade, hoping that the queen would drop.

When the queen failed to drop, South was down one. He had to give up a diamond at the end of the hand.

SPADE TRICK

If East had won the first spade trick with the queen, declarer would get to dummy with the jack of hearts to lead the king of spades through East

South would ruff out the ace of spades and get back to dummy with the ace of diamonds to discard two diamonds on the good spades.

DAILY QUESTION

As dealer, you hold:

♣ K J 10 9 5
♠ J 10
♦ A 3 2
♣ K 8 6.

What do you say?

Answer: Bid one spade.

You have 12 points in high cards, 1 point for the doubleton, and a fine 5-card major suit. This is a borderline opening bid, and some experts would recommend a pass instead of the bid.

When a Family Buys A Home in Central Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?
Latest Research* shows that 69.7% of home buyers in Central Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of MORE THAN 3½ to 1 than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	69.7
San Francisco	19.6

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH-PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

Aunt Emily

wants lemon in her tea—and Uncle Dudley prefers cream—but they'll both sip with pleasure when inspecting your new home if it's this country cottage. Aunt Emily will find the dining room's Jacobean wallpaper simply "chawming"—while Uncle D. will flip over the second bedroom where the wallpaper reproduces antique pistols in browns and gold. And when they see the half-timber architecture, the quarry tile floors and the tinted glass windows, you'll probably inherit Uncle Dudley's millions just because you have such good taste. But don't let them know all this cost you only $28,400—or they might think you didn't need those millions!

When a Family Buys A Home in Southern Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?

Latest Research* shows that 65.9% of home buyers in Southern Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of MORE THAN 2 to 1 than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	65.9
San Francisco	31.9

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

NOTICE OF HEARING

Notice is hereby given by the Local Agency Formation Commission that it will hold a hearing at 7:30 p.m., Monday, March 22, 1965 in the Supervisors Chambers, Marin County Civic Center, San Rafael, California on the matter of incorporation of a City of Alto as described below:

Exhibit A

DESCRIPTION
PROPOSED CITY OF ALTO
Marin County, California

All that certain real property situate in the County of Marin, State of California, more particularly described as follows:

BEGINNING at the most Southeasterly corner of Lot 321, as said Lot is shown on "Map No. 1 of Salt Marsh and Tide Lands situate in the County of Marin, State of California" surveyed in April, May, June and July, 1870, under the direction of G. F. Allardt, Chief Engineer of the Tide Land Survey; thence from said point of beginning, Southwesterly along the Southeasterly line of Lots 321 and 320, as shown on said Map No. 1 to the most Southerly corner of said Lot 320, said corner being a point in the Northeasterly line of the Saucelito Canal, as said canal is shown on said Map No. 1; thence Northwesterly along the Northeasterly line of said Saucelito Canal to its intersection with the present corporate limits of the City of Mill Valley; thence along said corporate limits of the City of Mill Valley, along the common boundary between Lot 302 and 303, as said Lots are shown on said Map No. 1, North 52° 30′ east 318.12 feet to the Ordinary High Tide Line, as shown on said Map No. 1; said line also being the corporate limits of the City of Mill Valley established by Ordinance 449, August 15, 1956, (Enchanted Knolls—Unit 3 Annex); thence along said City Boundary, South 30° 45′ east 178.2 feet; South 43° 15′ East 211.2 feet; North 78° 00′ East 290.4 feet; North 43° 00′ East 92.4 feet; North 26° 30′ East 151.8 feet; North 9° 15′ East 118.8 feet; North 46° 15′ East 283.8 feet; North 62° 15′ East 99 feet; Underground Utilities On Novato Agenda

The Novato City Council will discuss its proposed underground utilities ordinance when it meets at 8 p.m. today in the community house.

The ordinance would require all utilities to be placed underground in new subdivisions except where the subdivider can prove it would be economically prohibitive.

The council will also hear a public works department report on the landscaping project for islands in Highway 101.

Other items on a short agenda include transfer of the taxicab franchise; sponsoring a city-wide clean up campaign, and plans for a county-wide planning seminar to be sponsored by the Novato Planning Department.

Mime Troupe Plans Show

The San Francisco Mime Troupe directed by R. G. Davis and Nina Serrano Landau is scheduled for three performances in Mill Valley's Brown's Hall, March 20-21.

Moliere's comedy, "Tartuffe," will be presented twice on March 20, at 8 and 10 p.m.

There will be a single presentation, at 8 o'clock, on the night of March 21.

Rock 'n' Roll Group Elects

Marian Pearlman of 598 Tarragon Drive has been elected president of thet newly-formed Beau Brummels Fan Club of Marin County.

Other officers elected were Marilyn Phillips of Ignacio, vice president; Sena Olson of Marinwood, secretary; and Christine Eyman of Terra Linda, treasurer.

Society Speaker

Jack Wilson, a commercial orchid grower from San Leandro, will speak on the Vanda orchid at a public meeting of the Marin Orchid Society at 7:45 p.m., March 18, in the Crocker-Citizens Bank in Fairfax.

Singers To Enter Prize Competition

College of Marin Folk Singers will compete for $100 in prizes from noon to 2 p.m. Thursday in a talent show in Olney Hall on the Kentfield campus.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Fred Allen Letters Provide A Feature

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The letters of Fred Allen, who died nine years ago, provided the basis yesterday for a nostalgic and sometimes delightful segment of NBC-TV's "Today" program.

The lengthy feature on the daily morning show was prompted by the coming publication of a book of the humorist's correspondence, "Fred Allen's Letters," and was a reminder of the blessed wit he brought to radio listeners for so many years.

It was almost natural that the various readings of funny selections from the book could not be too successful, first because it is impossible to read Allen material without breaking up, and second because his special dry voice added so much to it.

Those not fortunate enough to remember Allen at work will surely enjoy reading his letters anyway, with their touches of wild visual images; but those who do remember him will probably want to devour the book in deep privacy where they inevitably will be carried joyously into the past as they imagine him speaking the words.

Although yesterday's readings could not hope to be excellent because of this deep personal imprint of Allen, so easily remembered, nevertheless they brought forth some isolated recollections of his wit, though it is best in context with its building effect.

There was, for instance, one of the reasons he said he didn't frequent nightclubs: "I can meet a better class of people in the subway." There was his famous declaration concerning California: "California is a great place to live if you happen to be an orange."

As I say, however, isolated samples do not do justice to Allen's flavor. Thus the best part of yesterday's remembrance was an informal conversation with his widow, Portland Hoffa, and the editor of the book, Joe McCarthy. Miss Hoffa noted that Allen spent parts of two days each week writing letters, and reminded viewers of a fact well known: That he thought he was mishandled by television — and was. Rather than a big musical revue type program, he wanted something smaller, like his "Allen's Alley," or, with the tone perhaps of "Our Town."

THE CHANNEL SWIM: CBS-TV will present a half-hour program about Vice President Humphrey and duties of his office next Monday night. . .Senate hearings on cigarette advertising are scheduled to begin in two weeks. . .Sen. J. William Fulbright is interviewed on NBC-TV's "Meet The Press" Sunday.

Captain Gets Viet Nam Medal

Capt. Paul G. Stringer, formerly of Mill Valley, has been awarded the Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry with Silver Star, the Independent-Journal learned yesterday.

Captain Stringer, whose mother and step-father are Lt. Col. (ret.) and Mrs. Donald D. Smith of 214 Meda Lane, Strawberry, is an Army helicopter pilot in Viet Nam. The captain lived in Mill Valley while he was stationed at Crissey Field, Presidio, of San Francisco, a few years ago.

Flower Talk

Bertram W. Googins of the Berkeley Horticultural Nursery will discuss camellias, rhododendrons and azaleas with the Redwood Shade Garden Club at 8 p.m. Friday in Whittaker Hall, St. Stephen's Church, in Belvedere.

Tourists Bid To Redwoods; Floods Gone

"Operation Flood Rebound," a self-help campaign with a $50,000 goal was in full swing today throughout the Redwood Empire.

The program seeks funds to tell travel prospects across the nation that the Redwood Empire is well on its way toward restoring Christmas flood damage, and that it welcomes them this spring and summer.

A thousand letters from J. Dwight O'Dell of Fortuna, president of the nine-county Redwood Empire Assoc., went this week to city councils, chambers of commerce, civic groups, REA members and business leaders throughout the region from San Francisco to Grants Pass.

O'Dell cited the urgency to reassure visitors that "Redwood Empire wasn't washed out to sea," that roads will be open and trafficable, and that ample accommodations and recreational attractions are available.

"Four counties and a score of members already have contributed more than $6,000 to 'Operation Rebound'," the Humboldt publisher declared. "Since solicitation is barely under way, we take this as evidence that the need for proper advertising is recognized."

O'Dell stressed that "Operation Rebound" is not charity, but "a hard-headed approach in which the whole Redwood Empire tells the traveling public we are back in business. Unless we blow our horn this spring, counties which escaped flood damage will suffer through association in the public mind with those which did."

The first $10,000 contributed will go toward an association newsletter which will give progress reports to editors, auto clubs and travel bureaus; also to bring key travel writers to see this progress at first hand.

Birch Speaker Set At College

W. Gary Woodward, John Birch Society spokesman, will be the first guest speaker of the spring semester of the newly reorganized Mariner Discussion Group at the College of Marin. He will appear at noon Friday on the Kentfield campus lawn.

The discussion group in 1963 was responsible for the talk on the campus by Communist Party Leader Albert J. (Mickey) Lima, the first appearance by a Communist on a junior college campus in the state.

Chairman Jack Lucas of Mill Valley said the club will continue its policy of inviting controversial speakers.

Duelling is illegal in all western countries.

Synanon Members Plan To Speak

Two members of the San Francisco chapter of Synanon will speak at a B'nai B'rith meeting at 8:15 p.m. tomorrow in the Terra Linda Recreation Center.

The members will describe Synanon's methods of treating narcotics addiction. The meeting is being held by a group seeking to form a new B'nai B'rith lodge in Marin County.

Forum Planned

Marin County chapter of Pro America will present a forum on "Reapportionment" tomorrow in San Francisco during a Northern California regional conference of Pro America. The conference, at the Clift Hotel, will start at 10:30 a.m.
